the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, January 17, 1977 (77)

TIAA INSURANCE INCREASE -- Under the university's TIAA Total Income Disability Insurance Plan, the income benefit for any full-time employee who may become totally disabled due to injury or illness is increased effective this month, January, 1977. The new formula will be 60% of the first $2,000 of monthly salary plus 40% of the excess to a maximum of $2,500 per month as offered by TIAA. Currently the income benefit is 60% of the first $1,500 of monthly salary plus 40% of the excess to a maximum of $2,000 per month.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

JAMES BROWNE, coordinator, The Associates Program, Institute for Educational Leadership. "Power Politics for Teachers, Modern Style," Phi Delta Kappan, Vol. 58, No. 2 (October 1976).

CARL GOLDBERG, assistant clinical professor of psychiatry and behavioral sciences (psychology). "Encounter Therapy as an Existential Saga," in: H. Grayson and C. Loew (eds.) Changing Approaches to Psychotherapy. New York: Spectrum Publications, 1977.

———. Review: G. K. Pollak. Leadership of Discussion Groups. in: International Journal of Group Therapy, Vol. 26, No. 4 (1977).

———. Therapeutic Partnership: Ethical Concerns and Responsibilities of the Psychotherapeutic Relationship. New York: Springer Publishing Co., 1977.

SAMUEL HALPERIN, director, Institute for Educational Leadership, Perspectives on Federal Education Policy. Washington, The George Washington University, 1976.

——— and GEORGE KAPLAN, coordinator, Career Education Policy Project, Institute for Educational Leadership. (eds.) Federalism at the Crossroads: Improving Educational Policymaking. Washington: The George Washington University, 1976.

PETER F. KLARÉN, associate professor of history. Formación de las haciendas azucareras y los orígenes del Apra. (2nd edition, revised and augmented) Lima, Peru: Instituto de Estudios Peruanos, 1976.

NORMAN L. MCELROY, instructor in radiology (allied health sciences), JOSEPH J. CARR, bioelectronics laboratory, and BONITA L. CARR, staff nurse, coronary care unit. "How to Solve Dosage Problems in One Easy Lesson," The American Journal of Nursing (December 1976).

DORN C. MCGRATH JR. professor of urban planning and chairman, department of urban and regional planning. "Air Transportation and the Urban Environment," HUD Challenge (December 1976).

LEONARD NADLER, professor of education. "Learning from Non-School Staff Development Activities," Educational Leadership (December 1976).

WALTON E. SMITH, associate professor of management science. "Centralization vs. Decentralization," Data Management (January 1977).

HONORS

CALVIN D. LINTON, professor of English and dean, Columbian College of Arts and Sciences, has been elected Honorary Member of the Mark Twain Society in recognition of his "outstanding contribution to American history by his scholarly The Bicentennial Almanac."

WILLIAM L. TURNER, associate professor emeritus of English, was presented the Distinguished Service Award of Phi Eta Sigma at a convention of the Phi Eta Sigma Freshman Honor Society on November 13, 1976, at Texas A&M University. He was honored for thirty years as faculty advisor to the George Washington University chapter of the society.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

JOHN G. ALLEE, professor of English and dean, Division of University Students, delivered a paper entitled "Greenlandic System of Place Designations - True Names or Appelatives?" at the American Name Society's 24th annual meeting held December 29, 1976, in New York.

JAMES L. BREEN, professor and chairman, department of human kinetics and leisure studies, has been appointed to the Academic Council of the Institute of Certified Travel Agents, Wellesley, Mass.

ALI B. CAMBEL, professor of engineering and applied science and director, energy programs, presented the keynote address December 13, 1976, for a meeting, Solar Cooling and Heating: A National Forum, at Miami Beach, Fla. The speech was entitled "Pragmatic Approaches to Solar Energy."

JOSEPH V. FOA, professor of engineering and applied science, presented a paper entitled "Ejectors and Rotary Jets" at the annual winter meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers held December 6, 1976, in New York.

SIDNEY JOHNSON III, director, Family Impact Seminar, Institute for Educational Leadership, presented the talk "Public Policy and the Family" at the Harvard Graduate School of Education, the Institute on National Youth Policy, and a national conference of major organizations concerned with the quality of American life during the month of December, 1976.

MARILYN KRESSEL, project coordinator, Postsecondary Education Convening Authority, Institute for Educational Leadership, made presentations during December, 1976, on "The Development of the Lifelong Learning Legislation" to the deans of continuing education at Trinity College, Washington, and at a Federal Affairs Workshop of the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges.

PETER P. HILL, professor of history, spoke on "Washington's Farewell: Statesmanship or Politics?" at a meeting of the George Washington Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution.

THELMA Z. LAVINE, Elton professor and chairman, department of philosophy, gave a public lecture entitled "Individuation and Unification in Dewey and Sartre" at Fordham University's Institute of American Philosophy on December 16, 1976.

JOHN M. LOGSDON, associate professor of political science and public affairs and director, graduate program in science, technology, and public policy, was a member of a National Academy of Sciences delegation to a national workshop on science and technology policy in Peshawar, Pakistan, October 18-27, 1976. He was luncheon speaker for a meeting of the Committee of Scientific Society Presidents, December 1, 1976, on the topic "Professional Societies and Science Policy." He will be chairman of the committee on science and public policy of the American Association for the Advancement of Science during 1977.

JOSEPH L. METIVIER JR., professor of Romance languages and assistant dean, Columbian College of Arts and Sciences, has been appointed acting dean of the American College in Paris for the spring semester 1977. GREGORY LUDLOW, associate professor of French, will be acting dean in Columbian College for the spring semester.

LEONARD NADLER, professor of education, has been selected as one of a two-person design committee for the second annual Advance Symposium of the American Society for Training and Development.

MARY E. NORTON, associate professorial lecturer in classics, spoke on the topic "Use of Filmstrips and Slides in Teaching the Classics" at a section meeting of the American Philological Association annual meeting in New York on December 28, 1976.

E. LAKIN PHILLIPS, professor of psychology and director, counseling center, was invited to give a talk entitled "Children's Reactions to Separation & Divorce" to the American Association of Psychiatric Clinics for Children in San Francisco, November 12, 1976. He was also invited to lead a discussion hour on "The Role of Feelings in a World in Behavioral Face" at a meeting of the Association for Advancement of Behavior Therapy in New York December 4, 1976.

HARVEY RESNICK, clinical professor of psychiatry and behavioral sciences, delivered the 13th annual Arthur K. Noyes Memorial Lecture at Norristown State Hospital. The talk was entitled "Observations on Suidical Behavior Among Hospitalized Patients."

NOZER D. SINGPURWALLA, professor of operations research, was invited to give the following talks: "Accelerated Life Tests," October 1976, at the Twenty-second Conference on Design of Experiments; "Some Current Topics in Reliability Theory," as a visiting scientist at the Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory, University of California, Los Alamos, N.M.; "Estimation of Failure Rates," the Washington Statistical Society. He was invited to chair a session on reliability theory at the annual meeting of the Institute of Mathematical Statistics, Yale University, to participate in a special panel on statistical methods by the American Society for Quality Control, and to serve on a panel of experts to evaluate some statistical methodologies used in the "Drug Abuse Warning Network," by the National Institute for Drug Abuse and the Drug Enforcement Administration.

CLARENCE STEINBERG, assistant professorial lecturer in English, led a special session on literary onomastics at the Modern Language Association meeting in New York, December 27, 1976.

DEWEY D. WALLACE JR., professor of religion, delivered a paper entitled "George Gifford, Puritan Propaganda and Popular Religion in Elizabethan England" to the meeting of the American Society of Church History, December 28, 1976, at the Shoreham-Americana Hotel, Washington.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Assistant	Pharmacology	Dr. Klubes ext. 2924
Research Scientist	Chemistry	Prof. Levy ext. 6483
Research Associate (2)	Population Information Program, Science Communication Division	Ms. Kolbe 462-5828
Research Associate	Department of Medical and Public Affairs, Science Communication Division	Mrs. Michaelson 462-5828

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, January 24, 1977 (78)

TUITION INCREASES -- The Board of Trustees at its stated meeting Wednesday, January 19, announced tuition increases effective in the fall semester of 1977 according to the following schedule.

For undergraduate study in Columbian College, the School of Education, the School of Government and Business Administration, the School of Public and International Affairs, in Allied Health Sciences, and for on-campus courses taken by undergraduate students in the College of General Studies, there will be an increase of $200, from $2,600 to $2,800 for a full-time program per academic year. Costs for part-time programs will rise from $98 to $105 for each semester hour.

For undergraduate study in the School of Engineering and Applied Science, costs will move from $2,700 to $2,900 for full-time programs and from $100 to $107 for each semester hour for part-time programs and for graduate study.

In the National Law Center, study for the Juris Doctor's and Master's degrees and for Continuing Legal Education Study will increase from $2,600 to $2,800 for students enrolled prior to the fall semester of 1976.

Tuition for students entering in the fall semester of 1976 or after that date will rise from $2,600 to $3,100. Tuition for part-time programs will rise from $100 to $107 for each semester hour for students enrolled prior to the fall semester of 1976 and from $100 to $120 for each semester hour for students entering in the fall semester of 1976 or thereafter. The yearly rate for study for the degree of Doctor of Juridical Science will be raised from $2,700 to $2,900.

For graduate study in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, the School of Education, the School of Public and International Affairs, the School of Government and Business Administration, and for graduate and undergraduate courses in the Division of University Students there will be an increase for each semester hour from $98 to $105. Undergraduate and graduate study in the Summer Sessions will be increased from $98 in 1977 to an amount not more than $105 in 1978 for each semester hour.

For undergraduate and graduate study in off-campus courses of the College of General Studies, fees will be increased from $74 to $78 for each semester hour.

For the degree of Doctor of Medicine, tuition will rise from $5,500 to $6,000 for 3rd and 4th year students and from $7,000 to $7,500 for 2nd year students.

Tuition for entering students will be $9,000 per year.

The Residence Fee, charged each student permitted to maintain "In Residence" status during any semester of absence from the university or after completion of tuition requirements, will be increased from $98 to $105.

DR. DENNIS S. O'LEARY NAMED DEAN FOR CLINICAL AFFAIRS -- Following the Board of Trustees' meeting on January 19, President Elliott announced the appointment of Dr. Dennis S. O'Leary to the position of Dean for Clinical Affairs in the Medical Center, effective immediately. In this post, Dr. O'Leary will assume clinical administrative responsibility for the University Hospital, the Medical Faculty Associates, the Graduate and Continuing Medical Education programs, as well as Utilization Review, Medical Audit and the Department of Nursing. Maintaining other institutional affiliations for house staff and medical student programs will also come under his jurisdiction.

A graduate of Harvard, Dr. O'Leary received his M.D. degree from Cornell University Medical College in 1964. In 1967 he served as Chief Resident in Medicine at Strong Memorial Hospital in Rochester, New York. He came to the GWU Medical Center in 1971 as an Assistant Professor of Medicine.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY NOTE -- The University Library needs paperback books for its circulating paperbook collection located in the Browsing Room on the main level (first floor). Both fiction and non-fiction titles are needed. The paperbacks should be delivered to Cathy Jones, Reader Services Office, Room 104, telephone 676-6950. Current magazines are also needed for the leisure reading magazine section in the Browsing Room and may be delivered to Cathy Jones.

faculty newsnotes

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

DAVID S. BROWN, professor of management, was the guest speaker at HEW Secretary Mathew's "brown bag" luncheon on December 16, 1976. The subject of his talk was "Some Suggestions for Reforming the Bureaucracy."

ISAIAH M. ZIMMERMAN, associate clinical professor of psychology, has been appointed chairman of the Group Psychotherapy Program at the Washington School of Psychiatry.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Associate Librarian (Head of Reader Services)	Jacob Burns Law Library	Prof. Bernard ext. 7337
Research Associate (3) and Research Assistant	Population Information Program, Science Communication Division	Ms. Kolbe 462-5828

PERSONNEL NOTICES cont'd

Title	Department	Contact
Research Assistant	Division of Infectious Diseases	Dr. Sheagren ext. 4185
Research Assistant (half-time)	Microbiology	Dr. Reich ext. 2907

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, February 7, 1977 (79)

EARLY TENURE POLICY -- As Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs Harold F. Bright announced at the January 25 Faculty Assembly, it will be university policy, effective immediately, that recommendations for early tenure will not be approved. Exceptions will be made only for compelling reasons. Generally, tenure will not be approved before the date on which a decision must be made as specified by the Faculty Code and Ordinances.

COMPUTER CENTER DIRECTOR -- The Office of the Provost has announced the appointment of F. William Rambo as director of the Center for Academic and Administrative Computing. Mr. Rambo comes to George Washington from Temple University, where he was director of systems and programming at the University Computer Authority. He is a member of ACM (the Association for Computing Machinery) and served as president of the Control Data Corporation Computer Users Association,known as VIM,from 1972 to 1974.

GW FORUM SPRING ISSUE -- The editorial board of the GW Forum invites interested persons to submit manuscripts for the spring 1977 issue. Topic for this thirteenth issue will be "making a living." Authors are asked to approach this topic in an essay of between 1,000 and 2,000 words. For those now employed, the role of making a living as a part of their whole lives could be examined. For students, the kinds of work they would like to be doing could be considered. General questions such as concepts of work, its relationship to personal growth, the future and pressures of work, the connections between work and values, are further subject areas suggested by the editorial board.

Deadline for submitting manuscripts is Friday, February 25. They may be turned in to Robert Garber at Alumni House, 714 - 21st Street, N.W. For further information, call 676-6435 or 676-7355.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

EUGENE ABRAVANEL, professor of psychology, E. Levan-Goldschmidt, and M. Stevenson. "Action Imitation: The Early Phase of Infancy," Child Development, Vol. 47 (1976).

ADEL I. EL-ANSARY, professor of marketing and business administration, and Louis Stern. Marketing Channels. Englewood Cliffs, N.J.: Prentice-Hall, 1977.

FACULTY NEWSNOTES (cont'd)

ADEL I. EL-ANSARY, professor of marketing and business administration, and Robert Robicheaux. "A General Model for Understanding Channel Member Behavior," Journal of Retailing (Winter 1976).

MILDRED M. REYNOLDS, adjunct assistant professor of psychiatry and behavioral sciences (social work). "Professional Review of Health Care Services," Health and Social Work (November 1976).

LORETTA M. STALLINGS, professor of human kinetics and leisure studies. "Application of an Information-Processing Model to Teaching Motor Skills," Motor Skills (Fall 1976).

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

R. VICTORIA ARANA, lecturer in English, presented a paper to the special session on biography and autobiography: theoretical problems for critics, at the MLA convention in New York, December 28, 1976, entitled "Remarks on the Importance of Discovering the Autobiographical Intent in Gosse's Father and Son." At a conference entitled "Old Gods - New Heroes: The Power of Myth in Literature and Film," sponsored by the Comparative Literature Circle of Florida State University, held January 28, in Tallahassee, she participated in two sessions. To the special session on tricksters, incest and cannibals she presented a paper entitled "The Uses of Sibling Incest in the Novels of Thomas Mann, Vladimir Nabokov and Anthony Burgess: The Twentieth Century Marriage of Two Older Myths." She chaired the seminar "Vortex Myths (vs. Vortex Mythologems): Critical Case Studies," presented its introduction, and read a paper entitled "What Can We Learn From a Levi-Straussian Analysis of Marlow's Myth in Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness?"

CHARLES M. CHAMBERS, associate dean, College of General Studies, delivered a speech on the cost of government regulation at the national conference of the University Centers for Rational Alternatives in Washington on December 10, 1976.

CHARLES E. DIEHL, vice president and treasurer, has been appointed an at-large member of the Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Board of Trade.

ALI M. KIPER, associate professor of engineering, presented a paper entitled "Performance Testing of a Residential Solar Climate Control System Using a Water Trickle Collector and Water-Rockbed Thermal Storage" at the National Solar Cooling and Heating Forum. The conference, held December 13-15, 1976, in Miami Beach, Florida, was sponsored by the Energy Research and Development Administration.

GEORGE A. OLKHOVSKY, associate professor of Russian and chairman, department of Slavic languages and literatures, has been delegated by the Executive Committee of the Congress of Russian Americans to serve as its representative and liaison with the White House.

MICHAEL J. SHAFFER, assistant professor of anesthesiology, was invited to give a talk on "Clinical Engineering and Equipment Management" at the 36th annual conference of the Maryland-Delaware-Virginia-D.C. Hospital Association which was held on January 12 at the Washington Hilton.

CHARLES T. STEWART, JR., professor of economics, gave several talks in South America during November and December 1976. In Belém, Brazil he spoke to the Banco da Amazonia, Superintendencia para Desenvolvimento da Amazonia, University of Pará, and Institute of Economists of Pará on migration and regional development and urban size and growth. He spoke on urban size and growth to Fundação Metropolitana de Planejamento in Porto Alegre, Brazil. At the Universidad Mayor de San Andres and the Ministry of Planning and Coordination in La Paz, Bolivia, he spoke on the American economy.

KLAUS THOENELT, professor of German, spoke on "Faust and the Eighteenth-Century Image of Man" at a February 2 meeting of the George Washington University Philosophy Club.

Honorary membership in the South Atlantic Modern Language Society has been conferred on HELEN B. YAKOBSON, professor of Russian.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Assistant and Research Associate	Statistics, Biostatistics Center	Karen Hood 657-2370
Chief Serials Librarian	University Library	Carolyn Rowe ext. 6455

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, February 14, 1977 (80)

WINTER CONVOCATION -- Dr. Bernard M. W. Knox, director of the Center for Hellenic Studies, will speak at the university's Winter Convocation on Monday, February 21, at 8 p.m. in the Charles E. Smith Center. Approximately 1,100 degrees will be conferred.

President Elliott will give the traditional charge to the graduates and confer degrees in course. Dr. Knox will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities. The invocation and benediction will be given by Bhante Henepola Gunaratana, Bhikkhu of the Washington Buddhist Vihara Society. The George Washington University Orchestra, under the direction of Professor of Music George Steiner, will play for the occasion.

Alumni achievement awards will be presented to Thomas Akroyd Clingan, Jr., (J.D., 1963); Doris Rosenberg Margolis (B.A., 1958); and Dr. John Patrick Walsh (Ed.D., 1958). Everett H. Bellows, president of the General Alumni Association and vice chairman of the Board of Trustees, will present the recipients to President Elliott.

Dr. Knox is widely known as a Hellenic scholar and lecturer in the classics. He received his education at Cambridge University, England, and at Yale University. He taught at Yale from 1946 to 1960, the last two years as Hillhouse Professor of Classics. A former Guggenheim Fellow, he held the Sather Lectureship at the University of California in 1962-63. He has been director of the Center for Hellenic Studies since 1961. Among his principal works are The Heroic Temper, studies in Sophoclean tragedy, and Oedipus at Thebes. Dr. Knox wrote the scripts for four 30-minute color films on Sophocles' Oedipus the King and appeared in them as well. Produced by the Council for a Television Course in the Humanities for Secondary Schools, a Boston organization, the films were shown on educational television networks, and are currently distributed by Encyclopedia Brittanica Films. They are used by many schools throughout the country.

Mr. Clingan served as Deputy Assistant Secretary of State and Ambassador of the United States for Oceans and Fisheries Affairs in 1974-1975 and earlier as counsel to the Subcommittee on Oceanography of the U. S. House of Representatives Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee. Now professor of law at the University of Miami Law School, he taught at The George Washington University's National Law Center from 1963 to 1969.

Mrs. Margolis is vice president and director of Editorial Associates, an organization she founded in 1963 while serving as editor of the International Journal of Rehabilitation. She has written widely for both the general and medical press.

Dr. Walsh has been president, since 1968, of Dunwoody Industrial Institute, an organization that has pioneered in the areas or post-secondary vocational and technical education. He has served the U. S. Government in a number of capacities, including that of director of trade and industrial education for the Office of Education, and assistant manpower administrator in the Department of Labor.

TELETHON OPENS TONIGHT -- The 1977 telethon, "George Calling," will open in Washington this evening, Monday, February 14, and will continue Mondays through Thursdays until Thursday, March 10 (with the exception of Monday, February 21). University Trustee Stephen R. Woodzell is serving as the national chairman for this year's Annual Fund Drive. J. Frank Doubleday, assistant to the dean for external affairs in the School of Government and Business Administration, is national telethon chairman. This annual alumni telephone fund-raising drive will be held in Room 413 of the Marvin Center from 5:45 to 9:30 p.m. on the dates noted. All members of the university community (faculty, staff, students, and alumni) are encouraged to volunteer on any evenings of their choice. Complimentary parking in the Marvin Center garage is always provided and a light supper is served for volunteers. For further information and to volunteer, call or visit the Development Office, University Library, Room 701, telephone, 676-6415.

MARTHA'S MARATHON OF BIRTHDAY BARGAINS -- Martha's Marathon of Birthday Bargains, the traditional student fund-raising auction of treats and privileges, will be held on Friday, February 25, at 8 p.m. in the Marvin Center Ballroom. Admission will be 75¢. Sponsored by the George Washington University Residence Hall Association, the auction will raise funds to provide for residence for one or more GWU students in university dormitories next year. The committee, under the chairmanship of Diane Baker, a junior in the School of Public and International Affairs, is assembling auction items from the GWU campus, the community and Capital Hill. Auctioneers will be Associate Professor of Zoology Stefan O. Schiff and GWU student Alan Kaplan, also a junior in the School of Public and International Affairs. Music for dancing after the auction will be provided by the dance band Zig-Zag.

LIBRARY HOURS -- The following hours will be in effect at the University Libraries from Friday, February 18, through Monday, February 21:

JACOB BURNS LAW LIBRARY

Friday, February 18	8 a.m. to 12 midnight
Saturday, February 19	9 a.m. to 12 midnight
Sunday, February 20	9 a.m. to 12 midnight
Monday, February 21	CLOSED

HIMMELFARB LIBRARY

Friday, February 18	7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Saturday, February 19	10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Sunday, February 20	10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Monday, February 21	10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

Friday, February 18	8:30 a.m. to 12 midnight
Saturday, February 19	10 a.m. to 10 p.m.
Sunday, February 20	12 noon to 12 midnight
Monday, February 21	8:30 a.m. to 12 midnight

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

LEONARD NADLER, professor of education. "Training People Before Hiring: Sounds Funny But It Saves Money," Training/Human Resource Development (January 1977).

CALVIN D. LINTON, professor of English and dean, Columbian College, and Edward Litchfield. (eds.) Quick Reference Encyclopedia. Thomas Nelson Publishers, 1976.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

H. I. GATES, assistant professor of sculpture, is represented in the current invitational exhibition entitled "The Object as Poet" at the Renwick Gallery.

YOUNG C. KIM, professor of political science and international affairs, gave lectures at institutes in Moscow in mid-January at the invitation of the USSR Academy of Sciences. Professor Kim participated in a joint USA-Japan-Korea symposium on Northeast Asia sponsored by the Stanford Research Institute and the Asian Institute for Public Policy, held in Seoul in late January.

THELMA Z. LAVINE, Elton professor of philosophy and chairman, department of philosophy, delivered a paper "Internalization, Socialization and Dialectic" at the 73rd annual meeting of the Eastern Division of the American Philosophical Association on December 28, 1976.

HAROLD LIEBOWITZ, professor of engineering and applied science and dean, School of Engineering and Applied Science, has been elected president of the Washington Society of Engineers.

GREGORY LUDLOW, associate professor of French and acting assistant dean, Columbian College, appeared on a panel on French Canadian television Tele-Metropole, January 19. The inauguration eve panel discussed, in French, possible direction of the Carter administration.

RAYMOND L. PICKHOLTZ, professor of engineering and applied science, presented a paper entitled "Analysis of Multiple Access for Digital Communications Via Satellites" to the Canadian section of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers in Winnipeg on January 12.

SONYA A. QUITSLUND, assistant professor of religion, was interviewed on CBS Radio, New York, regarding a recent papal document opposing the ordination of women in the Roman Catholic Church, its theological merits and weaknesses. On February 1 she spoke on "Women and the Church" at Madeira School, and on February 2 she spoke on "Sex and the Single Life" at a Catholic University seminar on sexuality.

ELAINE REUBEN, visiting associate professor and director, Women's Studies Program, was a delegate to the founding convention of the National Women's Studies Association, held in San Francisco, January 13-16. LINDA GRANT DE PAUW, professor of American history and a member of GW's committee on women's studies, participated as a panelist in the convention planning session on the annual conference. Dr. Reuben was a consultant to the second annual Great Lakes Colleges Association (GLCA) Women's Studies Conference, held at the Geneva Conference Center, Rochester, Indiana, January 20-23. Her talk, "On Education for Survival and Change," was part of the opening panel on directions in women's education. She worked throughout the conference with members of the GLCA Committee on Women's Studies to develop the conference's concluding session on future directions for the consortium.

CHARLES W. WASHINGTON, assistant professor of public administration, has been appointed and currently serves as a member of the fellows selection committee of the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration for the 1976-77 academic year.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Assistant	Pharmacology	Dr. Klubes ext. 2924
Research Associate and Research Assistant (education for the handicapped)	Mid-East Regional Resource Center	Peggy Sweitzer ext. 7200
Associate Director (Technical Services)	Himmelfarb Health Sciences Library	Nina Matheson ext. 3528

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, February 28, 1977 (81)

OCCUPATIONAL INJURIES RATE DECREASES -- The Office of Safety and Security reports that 1976 data concerning occupational injury incidents reflect a 17 per cent decrease from the incident rate of 1975. According to the OSHA Guide to Evaluating Your Firm's Injury and Illness Experience, published in 1976, the average incident rates for colleges and universities employing 2,500 or more employees is 3.2 per cent per 100 workers. Based on the Comptroller's estimate of George Washington's 1976 total employee hours, the GWU rate is less than two per cent. The Office of Safety and Security notes that the university's occupational injury rates can only be kept low by constant alertness and attention on everyone's part to good safety practices.

TELETHON CONTINUES -- All members of the university community are invited to take part in the George Calling telethon which will continue through March 10, Mondays through Thursdays, from 5:45 to 9:30 p.m. in Room 413 of the Marvin Center. Volunteers for this annual alumni telephone fund-raising drive will be welcomed on any evenings of their choice. Complimentary parking in the Marvin Center garage is always provided and volunteers are served a light supper. To volunteer, call or visit the Development Office, University Library, Room 701, telephone, 676-6415.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

DAVID S. BROWN, professor of management. "The Role of Training in the Changeover of Governmental Administrations," Training and Development Journal (January 1977).

ROGER N. MILLEN, associate professor of engineering. "'Acceptimization': A Problem of Translation for Management," Interfaces, Vol. 7, No. 1 (November 1976).

LEONARD NADLER, professor of education. "Adult Education," World Book Encyclopedia (1977).

SONYA A. QUITSLUND, assistant professor of religion. "Faith of Our Fathers: What to do about Sexism in Hymns," Pastoral Music (Feb/Mar 1977).

ROBERT H. WALKER, professor of American civilization. (ed.) The Reform Spirit in America: A Documentation of the Pattern of Reform in the American Republic. New York: G.P. Putnam's Sons and Capricorn Books, 1976.

ROBERT H. WALKER, professor of American civilization. (ed.) American Studies: Topics and Sources. Greenwood, 1976.

———. (ed.) American Studies Abroad. Greenwood, 1975.

———. "The Eagle When He Moults Is Sickly," in C.L. Cooper (ed.). Growth in America. Greenwood, 1976.

———. "American Fiction Today: Revolt against What?" Trends Magazine, Tokyo (1976).

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

NELSON L. BOMBA, assistant director, procurement and supply department, has achieved the prescribed requirements in education, personal development, and professional responsibility as established by the National Association of Purchasing Management and has been awarded the designation of Certified Purchasing Manager.

PHILIP D. GRUB, Aryamehr professor of multinational management, presented a paper entitled "The Responsible Corporate Citizen: Codes of Conduct for the Multinationals" with Gerhard Nothelfer, Aryamehr research scholar, at the 1976 meeting of the European International Business Association, Brussels, Belgium, on December 16. Dr. Grub gave the presidential address at the opening session, December 28, 1976, of the conference on "The Role of Multinational Corporations in Economic Development" sponsored by the Academy of International Business in Alexandria, Egypt. The speech was titled "The Significance of Multinational Corporations in Economic Development: What the Multinationals Can and Cannot Do." He also chaired the president's panel on "Developing Codes of Conduct for Multinational Corporations." On January 2, he addressed students and faculty at Abduz Aziz University in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia, on "The Role of Multinational Corporations in Technology Transfer to the Developing World."

HENRY R. NAU, associate professor of political science and international affairs, will be at Stanford University for the spring quarter, March 15 - June 15, as a visiting professor of political science.

SONYA A. QUITSLUND, assistant professor of religion, discussed the theological implications, both positive and negative, of a recent papal document opposing the ordination of women in the Roman Catholic Church on the ABC television program Directions, February 13. She gave the keynote address, entitled "A Call to Ministry: A Personal Evolution of Consciousness," at a conference on "The Church, Women, and Ministry," held in Cleveland on February 18.

JAMES W. ROBB, professor of Romance languages, has received a citation from Funk and Wagnalls, Inc. in appreciation of his 10 years of literary collaboration in Latin American literature, on the occasion of the company's 100th anniversary.

SAM ROTHMAN, professor of engineering administration, William B. Anspacher, and ROBERT J. LYNCH, assistant professorial lecturer in engineering, delivered a report entitled "National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, Office of Marine Minerals Technology Transfer Study" to the Department of Commerce, February 18. The report completed a four-month technology transfer study by the department of engineering, SEAS research group for the Department of Commerce.

STEFAN O. SCHIFF, associate professor of zoology, addressed the meeting of the National Association of Environmental Professionals on the subject of human population quality at the Hyatt Regency Hotel on February 10.

JEANNE E. SNODGRASS, associate professor of human kinetics and leisure studies, conducted a workshop for 100 teachers and members of the Ministry of Education in Tehran, Iran, February 1-6. The workshop, sponsored by the American Council for International Sport, sought "to promote sound programs of physical education for children as a basis for lifelong participation in physical activity and 'sports for all.'"

CYNTHIA L. WALKER, instructor in English, participated in a conference entitled "Old Gods, New Heroes: The Power of Myth in Literature and Film," sponsored by the Comparative Literature Circle of the Florida State University and held in Tallahassee, January 27-29. At the session on"The Vortex Myth (vs. Vortex Mythologems): Critical Case Studies," she delivered a paper entitled "D.H. Lawrence's Kangaroo, A Biographical and Historical Explanation for its Vortex Myth Pattern." She contributed a paper entitled "American Graffiti and the Golden Age" to the session on "Myths and Films."

personnel notices

NEW PHONE EXTENSION FOR DIRECTOR OF PERSONNEL -- James E. Clifford, director of personnel services, has a new telephone extension, 4467. Questions regarding personnel and employment information may be directed to extension 4470.

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Associate (2) Research Assistant (2)	Statistics (Biostatistics Center)	Joan Young 657-2370
Research Engineer Research Associate Research Assistant	Engineering Administration	Dr. Rothman ext. 7409

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, March 7, 1977 (82)

UNIVERSITY BOOKSTORE NOTE -- The University Bookstore will be closed from Monday, March 14, through Friday, March 18, for carpet laying.

SELF-STUDY REPORT AVAILABLE -- Any member of the university community who has not received a copy of the Self-Study Report, prepared for the Middle States Accrediting Team, and who would like to have one, should call the Office of the Provost, extension 6506. The visitation will take place Monday, March 21, through Wednesday, March 23. Members of the university community who would like to meet with a member of the team are invited to call Dr. Edward Caress, at extension 6506, to arrange an appointment.

THE JOURNAL OF RELIGIOUS CONCERN-- The Board of Chaplains of the university announces the publication of the Journal of Religious Concern. This year's topic is "What Values America? Questions for a Third Century." Copies of the journal may be obtained at Building O, 2106 G Street, Room 102.

In conjunction with the publication, a reception and forum are scheduled for tomorrow, Tuesday, March 8, in Strong Hall Lounge, 620 - 21st Street, N.W. from 4 to 6 p.m.

Professor of American Civilization Clarence C. Mondale will discuss the topic "Values in University Life" at 5 p.m. Authors of the articles and poetry in the journal will be present.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

RICHARD P. SEIFERT, assistant professor of biology. "Natural History of Insects Living in Inflorescences of Two Species of Heliconia," Journal of the New York Entomological Society, Vol. 84 (December 1976).

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

THEODORE P. PERROS, professor of chemistry and forensic sciences, spoke at a Catholic University department of chemistry seminar, January 21, on the topic "The Forensic Chemist in the Crime Laboratory."

DANIEL SINICK, professor of education and director, rehabilitation counselor education, has been elected to the presidency of the National Vocational Guidance Association.

GARLAND D. WIGGS, associate professor of education, presented a talk entitled "Who Says that 'Managing by Objectives' is Dead?" to a meeting of the Washington Personnel Association, February 24.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Technician	Collagen Chemistry Laboratory, Department of Orthopaedic Surgery	Dr. Parsons ext. 2820

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, March 21, 1977 (83)

MIDDLE STATES TEAM VISITING CAMPUS--The evaluation team from the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools is now visiting the university and will be here until Wednesday, March 23. The team consists of the following members: Herman Branson, president, Lincoln University, team chairman; Paul L. Dressel, professor of university research, Michigan State University; Arnold Goren, vice chancellor, professor of education, New York University; Stanley O. Ikenberry, senior vice president, Pennsylvania State University; Norman J. Johnson, associate dean, professor of urban affairs, Carnegie-Mellon University; Mary Jane Kingkade, dean for university and special programs, CUNY Graduate School and University Center; David E. Long, vice president for external affairs, Skidmore College; Joseph C. O'Connell, senior vice president and treasurer, Rutgers University; Edward H. Rosenberry, professor of English, University of Delaware; Ben C. Bowman, special collections librarian, The Johns Hopkins University; and Nancy J. Weiss, professor of history, Princeton University.

The purpose of the team's visit is to look over the activities of the university in connection with the every ten-year reaffirmation of the university's accreditation. During the course of the visit team members will be visiting with groups of students, faculty, and administrators. While the main areas of interest to the team will be the four topics discussed in the Self-Study Report prepared for them, the team members will be evaluating the entire university. (The four topics are: Community-Oriented Programs, The Consortium and the University, Government Influence on the University, and Status of Undergraduate Education in Columbian College.)

On Wednesday the team will give an informal report of its findings to President Elliott. The formal report will be submitted in several weeks to the university for comment and then will be sent to the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools for its action.

TELETHON RESULTS--The Washington area "George Calling" telethon which ran from February 14 to March 10 resulted in a record breaking $87,276 from 4,421 pledges to the 1976-77 Annual Support Fund, exceeding last year's total of $68,589. J. Frank Doubleday, national telethon chairman, would like to thank the 479 alumni, faculty, students, and staff members who volunteered their time to contact area alumni.

COMPUTER-BASED REFERENCE SERVICE--Bibliographic data base search services are now available to GWU students, faculty, and staff in the reference department of the university library. Access to selected data bases of the Lockheed DIALOG system are offered in the fields of business, doctoral dissertations, education, engineering, government technical reports, and psychology. More data bases will be added as interest indicates and capabilities allow.

The search product is a bibliography: citations, with or without abstracts, to the literature on subjects that are included in the data bases available. Included will be journal articles, government reports, technical papers, conference proceedings, and books. Each citation will include full bibliographic information for locating the materials. The bibliography will be mailed from the Lockheed office in California within a few days of the search and can be picked up at the reference desk.

Each search of each data base will cost the requestor approximately $20-$30. Costs can be higher or lower depending on the nature and extent of the search. In offering this service, the university library is bearing the costs of the terminal, support materials, and the extensive staff time involved in search preparation.

For more information, contact Tom Narbeth at 676-6047 or go to the reference desk in the university library.

CARPET SELECTION GUIDELINES--The physical plant department reports that much of the carpeting now installed in university buildings is now, or soon will be, ready for replacement. Guidelines on carpet selection have been prepared for use within the university and are available on request from the procurement and supply department. Call 676-6865.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

LINDA GRANT DEPAUW, professor of American history. (ed.) Documentary History of the First Federal Congress of the United States of America, March 4, 1789-March 1, 1791. Volume III: House of Representatives Journal. Baltimore: The Johns Hopkins University Press, 1977.

SONYA A. QUITSLUND, assistant professor of religion. "The Christian Family," Catholic Charismatic (Feb/Mar 1977).

HONORS

ROGER E. KAUFMAN, associate professor of engineering, received the American Society of Mechanical Engineers' 1976 Mechanisms Committee Award for "outstanding contributions to the field of mechanism design or theory."

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

MARGARET MCINTYRE, professor of education, gave a paper entitled "Review of Research in Early Childhood Education" at the annual meeting of the Virginia Association for the Education of Young Children, February 18th in Roanoke.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES cont'd

LEONARD NADLER, professor of education, has been appointed conference chairman for the 7th annual conference of the International Federation of Training and Development Organizations (IFTDO), to be held in Washington in June 1978. IFTDO includes national societies from 30 countries.

SONYA A. QUITSLUND, assistant professor of religion, gave a talk entitled "The Place of Women in Judeo-Christian Tradition" at the Walt Whitman High School, Bethesda, Md., on March 8.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Senior Scientist (doctorate required)	Social Research Group	Faye Baumgarner 331-8706

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, March 28, 1977 (84)

UNIVERSITY BLOOD DRIVE -- The university will sponsor a Red Cross Blood drive on Tuesday, April 5, in the ballroom of the Marvin Center between the hours of 10 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. Donations will be by appointment only. Those who wish to give should call 676-6555 to schedule a time. To inquire about eligibility, potential donors should call the Red Cross at 857-3767. Those who wish to donate but are unable to make appointments may go to the Red Cross Center at 2025 E Street, N.W. The center, less than a five-minute walk from campus, is well equipped to take walk-in donors. The Student Activities Office, which is coordinating the drive, urges all members of the university community to make a contribution.

LAW AND MEDICAL LIBRARIES HOURS -- For the convenience of the university community, the hours of the law and medical libraries during the spring recess periods of the two schools are listed below.

The Jacob Burns Law Library

Saturday, March 26	9 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Sunday, March 27	Closed
Monday, March 28, through Friday, April 1	9 a.m. to 10 p.m.
Saturday, April 2	9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Sunday, April 3	12 noon to 10 p.m.

(Note: The National Law Center spring recess begins after the last class on Saturday, March 26.)

The Paul H. Himmelfarb Health Sciences Library

Friday, March 25	7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Saturday and Sunday, March 26 and March 27	10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Monday through Thursday, March 28 through March 31	7:30 a.m. to 9 p.m.
Friday, April 1	7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Saturday, April 2	10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Sunday, April 3	10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

(Note: The listed hours include the AV Study Center in the Himmelfarb Library.)

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

JAMES W. ROBB, professor of Romance languages. "Nueva ojeada a Ifigenia y Landrú de Alfonso Reyes" ("A New Look at Alfonso Reyes' Ifigenia and Landrú"), Boletín "Capilla Alfonsina", México, No. 30 (Jan/Feb 1975).

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

RODERICK S. FRENCH, associate professor of philosophy, served as a seminar leader for the Century III Leaders national conference in Williamsburg, Va., March 25-28.

HOWARD GILLETTE, JR., assistant professor of American civilization, gave the first in a series of talks to benefit the Center City Foundation of Philadelphia, an organization dedicated to the conservation of the Rittenhouse Square area. His speech, given March 7, was entitled "The Transformation of Philadelphia Politics, 1844-1887."

MONROE HURWITZ, bookstore manager, has received the Master of Arts degree in education, with an emphasis on the administration of higher education, from GWU. In addition, he has been inducted into the Phi Delta Kappa professional education fraternity.

J. KENNETH MCDONALD, associate professor of international affairs, is one of seven members of the defense education working group in the Office of the Secretary of Defense. This group, appointed at the direction of Congress, will report this spring to the committees on armed services of the House and Senate on the possible greater use of civilian faculty at the Military, Air Force, and Naval academies, and at the several staff and war colleges.

PATRICIA J. MCMILLEN, director, international student advising, attended the American Personnel and Guidance annual convention in Dallas, Texas, March 6-9. Ms. McMillen is chairperson of the Harry Detwiler memorial committee and presided at the GWU alumni social and fourth annual awards presentation at the convention. Awards were made to GW School of Education students and alumni in the fields of counseling and student development. Alumni recipients were Drs. Florine Greenberg and John Kegley; student recipients were Deborah S. Parker (in Memoriam) and Bernard L. Bondroff. Ms. McMillen was also co-presenter with William F. Sullivan of the Arlington Career Education Center of a program entitled "Non-Verbal Barriers in Cross-Cultural Counseling." Recorder and reactor was Morris Jackson, executive assistant to the assistant dean of the School of Engineering and Applied Science.

JAMES W. ROBB, professor of Romance languages, gave a lecture March 17, at the Club de las Américas, Washington, on "Visión literaria de la Ciudad de México, siglos XVI-XX."

RUSSELL B. STEVENSON JR., professor of law, has been selected for a Fulbright-Hays award to lecture in France on international commercial law, the regulation of the multinational corporation, and United States constitutional law and corporation law.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Assistant	Clinical Engineering	Dr. Orthner	ext. 3866
Resident Counselor	Thurston Hall	Clay Nelson	ext. 6688
Resident Director (3)	Francis Scott Key Hall, Strong Hall, Madison Hall	Clay Nelson	ext. 6688
Research Associate	Civil, Mechanical and Environmental Engineering, River Mechanics and Sedimentation Project	Dr. Mahmood	ext. 3793

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, April 4, 1977 (85)

MAJOR TELEPHONE SYSTEM CHANGE -- The Telephone Communications Department will be contacting all deans, assistant deans, project heads, departmental chairmen, and directors in the near future regarding the installation of a new long-distance calling system which is scheduled to go into effect at the university on Saturday, May 14. A letter will be sent to administrative officers asking for a list of authorized users. The same system has already been installed in the Medical Center.

When the new system goes into effect for the university, it will no longer be necessary to dial 131 (the access code) plus the extension desired to reach the Medical Center. Callers from the university will be able to dial the four-digit extensions directly.

BLOOD DRIVE REMINDER -- The university-sponsored Red Cross blood drive will be held tomorrow, Tuesday, April 5, in the ballroom of the Marvin Center between the hours of 10 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. The Student Activities Office (676-6555) is coordinating the drive.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

JOSEPH J. CARR, senior technician, bioelectronics laboratory. Servicing Medical and Bioelectronic Equipment. 1977.

HONORS

MARGARET MCINTYRE, professor of education, was granted an honorary life membership in Parent Cooperative Preschools International at its annual meeting held March 17 at U.C.L.A. The honor is in recognition of service to the organization during the past nine years. Professor McIntyre is currently U.S. advisor to PCPI's Board, and attended the biannual board meeting for three days prior to the general meeting.

MARY L. ROBBINS, professor of microbiology, received a special award for the teaching of science at the annual awards dinner of the Washington Academy of Sciences, March 17, "in honor of a superior teacher in the field of virology."

(more)

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

DENNIS E. GALE, assistant professor of urban and regional planning, discussed his recent research on neighborhood dynamics at an invitational conference on neighborhood conservation at the Conservation Foundation, Washington, on March 18.

YOUNG C. KIM, professor of political science and international affairs, presented a paper on "Korea and the Major Powers" at the annual meeting of the Association for Asian Studies in New York, March 25-27.

SONYA A. QUITSLUND, assistant professor of religion, was invited to participate in a conference on theological education for unordained ministers, March 21-22, at the Washington Theological Coalition.

JOAN R. REGNELL, assistant professor of speech, gave a talk on "Recent Developments in Voice Therapy" to the Speech and Hearing Discussion Group of the Washington Metropolitan Area, March 16.

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, April 11, 1977 (86)

NEW DIRECTOR OF DIVISION OF EXPERIMENTAL PROGRAMS -- Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs Harold F. Bright has announced the appointment of Associate Professor of Philosophy Roderick S. French as director of the Division of Experimental Programs effective July 1. He will succeed Professor of American Civilization Clarence C. Mondale, who has resigned as director effective June 30. Professor Mondale will spend the 1977-1978 academic year on sabbatical leave.

Professor French has been with the division since the inception of the concept in 1969, when it began as the GW-Washington Project, which he later served as associate director. The major activities of the early years of the program were supported by a grant from the Richard King Mellon Charitable Trust. In 1971 when the university received an institutional development grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities, Professor French was designated coordinator of the Humanities Development Program. In addition to being associate professor of philosophy, Dr. French is director of the master's program in philosophy and social policy.

According to Dr. French, the primary objectives of the Division of Experimental Programs will continue to be to support significant curriculum innovation, interdepartmental and interdivisional cooperation throughout the university, and the development of community-related programs.

SAFETY REMINDER -- The Office of Safety and Security would like to remind all the members of the university community of the continuing need for alertness in moving about the campus and the importance of calling the office at extension 6110 immediately about any unusual or suspicious person or circumstance.

REGISTRAR'S OFFICE, NEW TELEPHONE NUMBERS -- The Office of the Registrar is reorganizing its telephone system. Effective Monday, April 18, the office will have new telephone numbers. These numbers should be preceded by 676 when dialed from outside the university. When dialing from within the university, those who have 6000 and 7000 telephone numbers must dial 131 and then the desired extension. All other callers within the university may dial the extensions directly. All callers are urged to use the number for the specific functional area they wish to reach, rather than the general information number whenever this is possible.

The new numbers are as follows:

4900	General Information
4910	Registrar, Robert Gebhardtsbauer

4911	Associate Registrar, Theodore H. Grimm, Jr.
4912	Assistant Registrar, Jean M. Schlager
4909	Assistant to the Registrar, J.L. Roames International Student Affairs, Certifications, Medical School Records
4918, 4919	Administrative Associate, Margaret L. Vann Graduation and Law School Records
4915	Scheduling Officer, Helen S. Land
4906	Student Records Counselor (Balance Sheets) Catherine W. Cate
4916	Off-campus Records, Navlet Beall
4923	Data Control Supervisor, T.A. Coons
4914	Permanent Records Supervisor, Laura D. McKinnon
4925	Veterans Affairs, Cynthia L. Wolff.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

ALBERT H. TEICH, associate professor of public affairs. Technology and Man's Future. (2nd ed., revised and enlarged) New York: St. Martin's Press, 1977.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

JOSEPH L. GASTWIRTH, professor of statistics and economics,who acted as chairman of the American Statistical Association's ad hoc committee on privacy and confidentiality, represented that body before hearings of the Privacy Protection Study Commission on Capitol Hill on January 6. The hearings were held to entertain testimony on the effects on the professional community of the Privacy Act. He presented his committee's report, read a statement and answered questions from the members of the commission. Dr. Gastwirth was also an invited discussant at a session on labor economics at the March 21 meeting of the Society of Government Economists.

ANDREW GYORGY, professor of international affairs and political science, addressed the national convention of the International Studies Association at their St. Louis meeting, March 17-19, on the subject of the European Security Movement and the forthcoming Belgrade Conference. He discussed the same topic at a University of Chicago conference on April 8-9.

-more-

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Project Coordinator	Engineering Administration Department Research Group	John Pressley ext. 4987

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, April 18, 1977 (87)

REVISED TUITION BENEFITS FORMS -- The applications for tuition benefits have been revised, effective April 1, 1977. Departments are advised to disregard any old applications now on hand. The new applications may be obtained between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. at the Office of Personnel Services, Building GG, 2125 G Street, N.W.

LONG DISTANCE CALLERS LISTS REMINDER -- Administrative officers who have not yet transmitted to the Telephone Communications Office the names of authorized users in their departments for the new long-distance calling system are asked to do so as soon as possible. The lists should be sent to the Telephone Communications Office, 5th floor, Rice Hall, 2121 Eye Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20052.

TELEPHONE WORK ORDERS -- No telephone work orders will be processed until after Monday, May 16, following the completion of the new long-distance calling system.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

DAVID S. BROWN, professor of management, department of public administration. "'Reforming' the Bureaucracy: Some Suggestions for the New President," Public Administration Review (March-April).

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

MAURICE APSTEIN, research professor of engineering administration, has been elected to membership in the National Academy of Engineering.

ALI B. CAMBEL, professor of engineering and applied science, recently gave a seminar on "The Energy-Food Delivery System" at Lehigh University. The seminar was jointly sponsored by Lehigh's Institute of Fracture and Solid Mechanics and the Energy Task Force.

CONSTANCE COSTIGAN, assistant professor of design, has been made a fellow of the MacDowell Colony and granted a one-month residency at the colony in Peterborough, New Hampshire, in June, to prepare for a show at the Phillips Collection in October.

THOMAS F. COURTLESS, professor of law and sociology, has been appointed consultant to the National Institute of Mental Health. His responsibility will be to advise the director regarding the research and program needs in the area of mental retardation and anti-social behavior.

CHARLES M. GILMORE, associate professor of engineering and applied science, presented a paper, co-authored with M.A. IMAM, research associate, entitled "Microstructure of Titanium-6% Aluminum-4% Vanadium" at the 106th annual meeting of the American Institute of Mining, Metallurgical and Petroleum Engineers, March 6-10.

MARGARET P. GREENE, assistant treasurer, sponsored programs, recently conducted a one-day seminar on the fiscal aspects of administration and negotiation of federal grants and contracts for the National Graduate University. Twenty-two educational and other non-profit institutions participated.

ANDREW GYORGY, professor of international affairs and political science, delivered a paper on "Communism in Eastern Europe" at a conference entitled "What is Communism?" held at the University of Chicago on April 8.

JOHN HELMER, associate professor of sociology, has been appointed consultant to the U.S. Office of Management and Budget and a member of the President's Reorganization Project. His role is to assist in the development of President Carter's plan for reorganizing the White House and the Executive Office of the President. This is believed to be the first occasion on which an Administration has involved a professional sociologist in reorganization and management planning. Helmer is the author of a forthcoming book on policy advisors in government and was a consultant to the Carter-Mondale campaign staff last year.

HAROLD C. HINTON, professor of political science and international affairs, was a discussant at a conference on the U.S. and the Pacific-Indian Ocean Region at the Naval War College, March 24-26, an event sponsored by the Institute for Foreign Policy Analysis.

G.P. LAUTER, professor of business administration and director, doctoral program, School of Government and Business Administration, was a member of the United States delegation to the fourth seminar on East-West trade of the United Nations Economic Commission of Europe held in Geneva, March 22-24. He presented a paper to the seminar which was attended by delegations from 34 countries.

LENORE D. MILLER, curator of art, delivered an illustrated slide lecture to the Austrian-American Society on the topic "Austrian Art and Architecture 1898-1918," on March 24.

MICHAEL J. SHAFFER, assistant professor of anesthesiology, co-chaired the E.C.G. Surface Lead Session with Alvin H. Freiman of Memorial Hospital, New York City, at the Association for the Advancement of Medical Instrumentation's 12th annual meeting, March 15, in San Francisco.

RICHARD C. THORNTON, professor of history, lectured on "Tripolar Politics" before a teacher's workshop sponsored by the Freedoms Foundation, held in Lubbock, Texas on March 12. He also lectured on current U.S.-Soviet strategic relations at a U.S. Air Force "Soviet Awareness Program," March 23.

CHARLES W. WASHINGTON, assistant professor of public administration, presented a paper on "The Reduction of Intrusion; Toward an Alternative to Information Gathering for Social Services Delivery" at the annual conference of the American Society for Public Administration in Atlanta, March 30-April 1.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Continuing Engineering Education Associate	Cooperative Education and Training Program, School of Engineering and Applied Science	J.G. Waggener ext. 7191

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, April 25, 1977 (88)

SPRING COMMENCEMENTS, 1977 -- More than 2,000 graduates are expected to receive degrees at the university's spring commencements on Sunday, May 8, Sunday, May 22, and Friday, May 27.

President Elliott will confer degrees and bring greetings to the graduates at all the exercises. The deans of the schools and colleges will give the traditional charge to their graduates.

At the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences (Sunday, May 8, 1 p.m. in the Dorothy Betts Marvin Theatre) the Honorable Gilbert Gude, Congressional Research Service, Library of Congress, will give the principal address.

The School of Government and Business Administration graduates will be addressed by President Warren G. Bennis of the University of Cincinnati, who will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws. Emeritus status will be conferred on Joe Lee Jessup (Professor Emeritus of Business Administration) and Marvin Milton Wofsey (Professor Emeritus of Management). J. Frank Doubleday, assistant to the dean for external affairs, will receive a distinguished service award from the school. (The exercises will be held at 1:30 p.m. in Lisner Auditorium, GWU.)

The Columbian College of Arts and Sciences commencement will be held at 3 p.m. in the Smith Center, on Sunday afternoon, May 8, instead of 8 o'clock in the evening which has formerly been the custom. Senior class speaker will be Mark R. Warner, who will receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and who is this year's recipient of the Joshua Evans Prize in Political Science. An alumni achievement award will be presented to Professor Emeritus of Statistics Solomon Kullback. Emeritus status will be conferred on Kittie Fenley Parker (Professor Emeritus of Botany), Edwin Lockwood Stevens (Professor Emeritus of Speech), and Robert Louis Weintraub (also Professor Emeritus of Botany). The change in the hour provides the opportunity to return the commencement to the more family and student oriented occasion it used to be years ago.

At the School of Engineering and Applied Science commencement (Sunday, May 8, at 3:30 p.m. in the Dorothy Betts Marvin Theatre) James Pierce Chambers, president of Melpar Division of E-Systems, Inc. will speak to the graduates.

At the School of Public and International Affairs exercises (Sunday, May 8, at 6 p.m. in the Marvin Theatre) President James Arthur Robinson of the University of West Florida will speak and will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Public Service. There will be two student speakers, Debra Weiner, and Mark Alan Norman, who will both receive degrees of Bachelor of Arts. Emeritus status will be conferred on Franz Henry Michael (Professor Emeritus of International Affairs and Far Eastern History).

School of Education graduates will hear an address by Dwight David Darland, associate director, instruction and professional development, National Education Association. Emeritus status will be awarded to Wesley Thomas Carroll (Professor Emeritus of Education), and Raymond George Hanken (Professor Emeritus of Human Kinetics and Leisure Studies). (Exercises Sunday, May 8, 7 p.m. Lisner Auditorium, GWU.)

At the National Law Center commencement (Sunday, May 22, at 1:30 p.m. in the Smith Center) Judge Sarah Tilghman Hughes, U.S. District Court Judge, North. Dist. of Texas, will address the graduating lawyers. She will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws.

At the School of Medicine and Health Sciences exercises (Friday, May 27, at 3:30 p.m., Lisner Auditorium, GWU) Dr. William H. Cooper, clinical professor in obstetrics and gynecology, will receive an alumni achievement award. Emeritus status will be conferred on Dr. Carleton Raymond Treadwell (Professor Emeritus of Biochemistry).

FIRST PRESENTATION OF GEORGE WASHINGTON AWARDS -- The George Washington Awards, established in 1976, to recognize outstanding contributions in any area of the university community by students, faculty, administrators, and members of the staff, will be presented for the first time at the spring commencements of 1977. Award recipients include students, faculty and staff members. They are: Barry Gene Epstein, SEAS student; Ronald Warren Howard, director of alumni support in the Development Office; University Historian Elmer Louis Kayser; SGBA student Edwin Joseph Baughmann Lewis; SPIA graduate student Daniel Albert Martinage; student Susan Delora Newman; Thomas Houston O'Dell, carpenter, Physical Plant Department; and SPIA students Stephen Edward Sorkin and Jerry Curtis Tinianow.

STUDY TOUR OF CUBAN EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM -- There is an opportunity for a limited number of members of the university community to participate in a one-week study-tour of Cuba departing Sunday, July 31. Professor of Education John G. Boswell will be leading the tour. Due to several factors, the number who can take this trip must be limited to 39. The itinerary will include visits to the University of Havana, elementary schools, and the Pine Island Secondary School Center, as well as consultations with officials of the Cuban Ministry of Education. Application should be made to Professor Boswell, Room 510, Building C, telephone 676-7117.

AUTOMATED CALL PROCESSING FORMS -- The Telephone Communications Department has not yet received all of the authorized Long Distance Users Lists. Those who have not mailed in their lists, are urged to do so immediately. Account numbers for individuals cannot be assigned without the authorization list.

The Telephone Communications Department will be scheduling training sessions on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, May 9, 10, and 11, to familiarize long-distance users with the new system. Departments will be notified when to attend, and the location of the sessions. Authorization cards will be distributed at the sessions. Individuals will be asked to sign for their cards.

-more-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, May 2, 1977 (89)

LONG DISTANCE CALLERS TRAINING SESSIONS -- Training sessions will be held for authorized users of the Automated Toll Call Processing System on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, May 9, 10, and 11 in Room 101 of Building C, 2201 G Street, N.W. The sessions are scheduled for 11 a.m., 2 p.m., and 4 p.m. Authorization cards will be issued at the sessions and all authorized users must sign for their cards.

DIALING 131 NO LONGER NECESSARY -- Effective Saturday, May 14, all university and medical center numbers may be reached by dialing only the four digits of the desired extension. It will no longer be necessary to dial 131.

GWU CLUB HAPPY HOUR -- Pianist Eric Mandez is offering musical selections in the George Washington University Club from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. Tuesdays through Fridays (through Friday, May 27). All drinks and draft beer are offered at half price for the three-hour period and free hot and cold hors d'oeuvres are served. There is a limit of four guests per member for this special. Mr. Mandez has performed in concert on the Hammond Organ in the United States and South America, and has organized and directed vocal ensembles in Panama. He has composed more than 100 musical compositions ranging from pop to classical styles.

GEORGE WASHINGTON AWARDS ADDENDUM -- In last week's listing of those who have been selected to receive George Washington Awards in recognition of outstanding contributions to the university community, the name of Professor of American Civilization Clarence C. Mondale, was inadvertently omitted. Professor of Accounting Edwin Joseph Baughman Lewis, also a George Washington Award recipient, was mistakenly identified as an SGBA student. The Monday Report regrets the errors.

MARVIN CENTER DINING ROOMS SUMMER HOURS -- For the convenience of the university community, the summer hours of the Marvin Center dining rooms are listed.

Marvin Center First Floor Cafeteria

Monday, May 9, through Friday, May 27

Mondays through Thursdays	7 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Fridays	7 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Closed Saturdays and Sundays

Rathskeller

Monday, May 9, through Friday, May 27

Mondays through Fridays	6 p.m. to 12 midnight

Rathskeller (cont.)

Closed Saturdays and Sundays
Tuesday, May 31, through Wednesday, August 31
Mondays through Fridays	8 a.m. to 12 midnight
Closed Saturdays and Sundays and July 4

Second Floor Cafeteria, Marvin Center *

Tuesday, May 31, through Wednesday, August 31
Mondays through Fridays
Breakfast	7 a.m. to 8:30 a.m.
Lunch	11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Dinner	5 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.
Closed Saturdays and Sundays and July 4

* The Second Floor Cafeteria will offer "All You Can Eat" specials with fixed prices of $1.50 for breakfast, $2.60 for lunch, and $4.00 for dinner. These meals will include varied menus.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

RODERIC H. DAVISON, professor of European history. "'Russian Skill and Turkish Imbecility': The Treaty of Kuchuk Kainardji Reconsidered," Slavic Review, Vol. 35, No. 1 (September 1976).

AHMED K. NOOR, professor of engineering and applied science, and R.A. Camin. "Symmetry Considerations for Anisotropic Shells," International Journal of Computer Methods in Applied Mechanics and Engineering, Vol. 9 (1976).

AHMED K. NOOR, professor of engineering and applied science, and M.D. Mathers. "Finite Element Analysis of Anisotropic Plates," International Journal for Numerical Methods in Engineering, Vol. 11 (1977).

AHMED K. NOOR, professor of engineering and applied science, M.D. Mathers, and M.S. Anderson. "Exploiting Symmetries for Efficient Post-Buckling Analysis of Composite Plates," Proceedings of the 17th AIAA/ASME/SAE Structures, Structural Dynamics and Materials Conference. Valley Forge, Pa., May 1976, and AIAA Journal, Vol. 15, No. 1 (Jan. 1977).

HOWARD M. SACHAR, professor of history. A History of Israel. New York: Alfred A. Knopf, 1976.

FREDERIC R. SIEGEL, professor of geochemistry and chairman, department of geology, JACK W. PIERCE, adjunct professor of geology, Paul P. Hearn, M.S. in geochemistry, 1977, Salman Bloch, Ph.D. candidate in geochemistry, and Frank T. Dulong, M.S. candidate in geology. "Suspended Sediments in Southern Chilean Archipelago Waters: R/V HERO Cruise 76-4," Antarctic Journal of the U.S., Vol. 11, No. 4 (December 1976).

———. "Mineral Suspensate Geochemistry, Argentine Continental Shelf: R/V HERO Cruise 75-3," ibid.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

R. EMMET KENNEDY, JR., assistant professor of European history, has received a fellowship from the American Council of Learned Societies to do research in 1977-78 on the cultural history of the French Revolution.

NINA W. MATHESON, assistant research professor of health care sciences and director, Himmelfarb Health Sciences Library, served as a member of the accreditation team evaluating Hunter College-CUNY for the Middle States Association of Colleges and Universities and Commission for Higher Education, March 27-30. She has been elected to a three-year term on the board of directors of the Medical Library Association.

FRANZ H. MICHAEL, professor of international affairs and Far Eastern history, delivered a series of lectures entitled "China: Past and Present," and provided introductory remarks to the "History of China" film series, in courses offered by the Smithsonian Resident Associate program during its winter quarter (January-March). He also lectured at a conference entitled "Security and Stability in Northeast Asia," held at the University of San Francisco on March 2.

AHMED K. NOOR, professor of engineering and applied science, presented a paper entitled "Continuum Models for the Static and Dynamic Analysis of Repetitive Lattices" at the 17th conference on structures, structural dynamics and materials of AIAA/ASME/SAE, San Diego, California, March 23. The paper was co-authored by W.H. Greene and M.S. Anderson.

VLADIMIR PETROV, professor of international affairs, appeared on the WTTG-TV program Panorama on March 24, with Talbott Strobe, Time magazine diplomatic correspondent, to discuss Secretary of State Vance's trip to Moscow.

WALTER F. ROWE, assistant professor of forensic sciences, delivered a paper entitled "Preparation and Thin-Layer Chromatography of an Antimony Tetraphenylporphyrin Complex," with Anh Ngoc Huynh, at the 11th Middle Atlantic regional meeting of the American Chemical Society at the University of Delaware.

FREDERIC R. SIEGEL, professor of geochemistry and chairman, department of geology, and Dasharatham Sayala, Ph.D. candidate in geology, presented an invited paper entitled "Stream Sediment and Soils in Regional Exploration Geochemistry, Northern Virginia," at a spring seminar meeting of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers entitled "Exploration in the Virginia Piedmont."

JEANNE E. SNODGRASS, associate professor of human kinetics and leisure studies, conducted a workshop session in "Creative Movement for the Young Child" for the Eastern Shore Association for the Education of Young Children, April 16, at Salisbury State College, Maryland.

HENRY M. STEINER, professor of engineering administration, has been appointed GW's university representative to the Transportation Research Board of the National Research Council's Commission on Sociotechnical Systems.

RICHARD C. THORNTON, professor of history, lectured on "U.S.-Soviet Strategic Relations" at the Defense Intelligence School on March 14 and on the same topic at Braddock, Dunn & McDonald on March 15. He was a discussant at a conference on "The Pacific and Indian Ocean Basins, 1985-95," at the Naval War College, Newport, Rhode Island, March 24-26.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Assistant	Child Neurology EEG Lab	Dr. Dinges, ext. 2828

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

DISASTER DRILL VOLUNTEER VICTIMS NEEDED -- The University Hospital is cooperating with National Airport in a disaster drill on Saturday, April 30. Volunteers are needed to act as victims and will be asked to report to Ross Hall, 2300 Eye Street, N.W., at 7 a.m. on that morning. They will be made up to resemble actual casualties and then taken to the Emergency Room for triaging. Volunteers' services will be needed until approximately 2:30 that afternoon. A light lunch will be served. Pre-medical students would be welcome. All those interested in volunteering are asked to contact Craig DeAtley at 676-3878.

NEW TEXTBOOK MANAGER -- Irving R. Jones assumed the position of textbook manager at the University Bookstore on April 1. He was formerly textbook manager at the bookstore at Colgate University for nine years. He holds the Master of Arts in Russian language and literature from Indiana University in Bloomington, and served three years as instructor in Russian at the University of Missouri. He succeeds Brent Beeson.

ON-CAMPUS SUMMER PARKING -- Temporary on-campus summer parking will become available on Monday, May 2. Permits will be issued on a first-come, first-served basis beginning on Thursday, April 28. Kennedy Center parking will be terminated on Friday, May 6. Summer parking is available to those persons currently on the waiting list for parking, to all new full-time administrative staff, and to all summer applicants, full or part-time. Temporary summer parking fees must be paid monthly, in cash or by check. Further information is available from the Parking Office, 676-6405.

LIBRARIES AND BOOKSTORE HOURS -- For the convenience of the university community the schedule of hours of the university libraries and bookstore through the examination periods and summer sessions follows.

The University Library

Monday, April 25 through Friday, April 29	8:30 a.m. to 2 a.m.
Saturday, April 30	10 a.m. to 10 p.m.
Sunday, May 1	12 noon to 2 a.m.
Monday, May 2 through Thursday, May 5	8:30 a.m. to 2 a.m.
Friday, May 6	8:30 a.m. to 12 midnight
Saturday, May 7	10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Sunday, May 8	12 noon to 6 p.m.
Monday, May 9 through Friday, May 13	8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Saturday, May 14	12 noon to 6 p.m.
Sunday, May 15	Closed
Monday, May 16 through Friday, May 27	Regular summer hours Monday through Thursday 8:30 a.m. to 10 p.m.

	Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday, 12 noon to 6 p.m. Sunday, 12 noon to 10 p.m.*
Saturday, May 28 and Sunday, May 29	12 noon to 6 p.m.
Monday, May 30, Memorial Day	Closed
Tuesday, May 31	Resume regular summer hours

* The Reference Desk and Audio Visual Department will close at 9 p.m. on Sundays only.

The Jacob Burns Law Library

Monday, April 25 through Monday, May 2	Regular hours Weekdays, 8 a.m. to 12 midnight Saturdays and Sundays, 9 a.m. to 12 midnight
Tuesday, May 3 through Friday, May 6	8 a.m. to 12 midnight (Second Floor open to 2 a.m.)
Saturday, May 7 and Sunday, May 8	9 a.m. to 12 midnight
Monday, May 9 through Friday, May 13	8 a.m. to 12 midnight (Second Floor open to 2 a.m.)
Saturday, May 14	9 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Sunday, May 15 through Sunday, May 22	Closed, except to Staff and Faculty
Monday, May 23	Regular summer hours begin Weekdays, 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturdays, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sundays, 12 noon to 10 p.m.
Monday, May 30, Memorial Day	Closed

The Paul Himmelfarb Health Sciences Library

Monday, April 25 through Thursday, May 26	Regular hours Monday through Thursday, 7:30 a.m. to 12 midnight Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday, 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Sunday, 10 a.m. to 12 midnight

-more-

Friday, May 27	7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Saturday, May 28	8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Sunday, May 29	10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Monday, May 30, Memorial Day	Closed
Tuesday, May 31	Regular summer hours begin Monday through Thursday 7:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The University Bookstore

Monday, May 2 through Thursday, May 5	8:45 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.
Friday, May 6	Regular summer hours begin Weekdays, 8:45 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays, closed
Monday, May 16, Registration	8:45 a.m. to 7 p.m.
Monday, May 30, Memorial Day	Closed
Monday, June 13, Registration	8:45 a.m. to 7 p.m.
Thursday, June 30 and Friday, July 1	Closed, noon to noon, inventory
Monday, July 4, Independence Day	Closed
Wednesday, July 20, Registration	8:45 a.m. to 7 p.m.
Thursday, August 18, and Friday, August 19, Registration	8:45 a.m. to 7 p.m.

faculty newsnotes

Publications

MARILYN KRESSEL, assistant director, Postsecondary Education Convening Authority, Institute for Educational Leadership. "The Unfinished Evolution of Lifelong Learning," The New Jersey Adult Educator (Winter 1977).

BERNARD MERGEN, associate professor of American civilization and director, program in American studies. "Another Great Prize: The Jewish Labor Movement in the Context of American Labor History," in Ezra Mendelsohn (ed.). Essays on the American Jewish Labor Movement (YIVO Annual of Jewish Social Science, Vol. 16). New York: YIVO, 1976.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

KENNETH FISCHER, director, Postsecondary Education Convening Authority, Institute for Educational Leadership, briefed the local Washington chapter of the American Society for Training and Development on the implementation of the Educational Information Centers and the lifelong learning provisions of the Education Amendments of 1976. The group included trainers in business and government, private consultants, and university personnel.

RICHARD J. FRANKIE, professor of education, served as a visiting scholar at Western Carolina University on April 4-5. He addressed the faculty and staff, and representatives of thirty-five two-year colleges in North Carolina on the subject of "Legal Aspects of College Administration," and met with seminars and classes during the two-day visit.

DENNIS E. GALE, assistant professor of urban and regional planning, presented testimony before the District of Columbia Advisory Committee of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights on "Neighborhood Conservation and the Dislocation of Households." The hearings were held in the D.C. City Council Chambers on April 15. Gale chaired a seminar on "Metropolitan Tax Base Sharing" at the National Conference on State and Local Tax Reform, April 16, at Georgetown University Law School.

A. SIDNEY JOHNSON, director, Family Impact Seminar, Institute for Educational Leadership, discussed "The American Nuclear Family" on the Channel 9 television program "Nine in the Morning," March 9.

HAROLD LIEBOWITZ, professor of engineering and applied science and dean, School of Engineering and Applied Science, will serve as chairman of contributed papers on fracture and plasticity at the American Society of Mechanical Engineers Summer Applied Mechanics/Bioengineering/Fluids Engineering Conference to be held at Yale University in June.

BERNARD MERGEN, associate professor of American civilization and director, program in American studies, presented a paper entitled "Work and Play in an Occupational Subculture: American Shipyard Workers, 1917-1977" for a symposium on "The Anthropology of Work and Play" at the American Ethnological Society meeting in San Diego, California, April 9.

LEONARD NADLER, professor of education, has been appointed to the National Board of the American Society for Training and Development.

GAIL PASTER, assistant professor of English, participated in a seminar entitled "Shakespeare and Italy: The Dramatist as a Renaissance Artist" at the 1977 meeting of the Shakespeare Association of America held April 7-9 in New Orleans.

SONYA A. QUITSLUND, assistant professor of religion, spoke on "The Podium and the Pulpit" in the "Friends of the Libraries" series, April 14, in the university library.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Associate	Pathology	Frances Shane ext. 2954

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, May 16, 1977 (90)

GROUP LIFE INSURANCE CHANGES -- Effective Wednesday, June 1, 1977, the group life insurance benefits under the Lincoln National Life Insurance Company coverage for eligible university employees will be increased as follows:

(A) The non-contributory Life and Accidental Death and Dismemberment (A D & D) benefits will increase from $2,000 to $2,500;

(B) The contributory Life and A D & D benefits will increase to 125% of annual earnings rounded to the next lowest $1,000 with no increase in premiums;

(C) The $1,000 final benefit for retired employees remains unchanged;

(D) The maximum amount limitation is increased to the District of Columbia legal limit of $100,000 from the previous $40,000 limit.

New booklet-certificates and brochures reflecting these changes will be available in the Office of Personnel Services by June 1.

LONG DISTANCE USERS ACCOUNT CARDS -- More than 400 users have failed to attend the training sessions and have not picked up their cards. Without the information about the new calling procedures and the cards, they will not be able to make long distance calls.

Those who did not pick up their authorized users account cards for the new long distance calling system are asked to contact the Telephone Communications Office (676-6521) to make arrangements to do so. Authorized users must sign for their cards. Identification will be required.

MARVIN CENTER CAFETERIAS -- The Marvin Center first-floor cafeteria will be closed from Tuesday, May 31, through Wednesday, August 31.

During this period (May 31 through August 31) the second-floor cafeteria in the Marvin Center will be open and will offer "All You Can Eat" specials for breakfast, lunch, and dinner, Mondays through Fridays. Hours and prices will be: breakfast, 7 a.m. to 8:30 a.m., $1.50; lunch, 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., $2.60; and dinner, 5 p.m. to 6:30 p.m., $4.00.

Carry-out service from May 31 through August 31 will be provided by the Rathskeller (5th floor, Marvin Center). An a-la-carte menu will be offered from 8 a.m. to 12 midnight, Mondays through Fridays.

Both the second-floor cafeteria and the Rathskeller will be closed on Saturdays and Sundays from May 31 through August 31, and also Monday, July 4.

SMITH CENTER SUMMER MEMBERSHIPS -- Summer memberships in the Smith Center are available for families of full-time faculty and staff members of the university. The memberships are for the period Monday, May 16, through Sunday, August 14. The cost is $50. Summer memberships include use of two tennis courts in the main arena, handball-squash courts, swimming pool, weight room, jogging track, men's and women's saunas, and the basketball-volleyball gymnasium. It should be noted that the main arena will be closed for several weeks during the summer for resurfacing.

Faculty and staff members will be able to continue to use the Smith Center during the summer at no cost by presenting their picture ID cards. The charge for guests of faculty and staff is $3.00 per visit.

SMITH CENTER SUMMER HOURS -- The hours of the Smith Center from today, Monday, May 16, through Sunday, August 14, will be as follows:

Monday through Friday	9 a.m. to 9 p.m.
Saturday	10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Sunday	1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Pool Hours will be:

Monday through Friday	11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. to 8 p.m.
Saturday	10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Sunday	1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Scheduling of reservations for the tennis courts will start following the completion of the new floor in the main arena and the north exercise gymnasium. The handball-squash courts, the weight room and the men's and women's saunas will be open the same hours as the building.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

DENNIS E. GALE, assistant professor of urban and regional planning, and Franklin James. Zoning For Sale: A Critical Analysis of Transferable Development Rights Programs. Washington, D.C.: The Urban Institute, 1977.

THELMA Z. LAVINE, Elton professor of philosophy and chairman, department of philosophy. "Ideas of Revolution in the Women's Movement," American Behavioral Scientist (March-April 1977).

-more-

MOHAMMAD B.G. SHAHVARI, assistant professor of anesthesiology, assistant research professor of pharmacology, and co-director, intensive care unit, JACK E. ZIMMERMAN, associate professor of anesthesiology and of medicine and director, intensive care unit, and Colleen M. Kigin. "Speaking Tracheostomy Tube Modified for Swallowing Dysfunction and Chronic Aspiration," Anesthesiology, Vol. 46, No. 4 (April 1977).

ROBERT H. WALKER, professor of American civilization. (ed.) Milestones in American Literary History by Robert E. Spiller (edited with foreward by Robert H. Walker). Westport, Conn. and London: Greenwood Press, 1977.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

GEORGE R. BOZZINI, assistant professor of English and director, English for international students, VIVIAN H. BEARD, adjunct assistant professor of English, and Christine Meloni of the English program for international students, attended the 1977 convention of Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages held April 24-30 in Miami Beach.

DAVID S. BROWN, professor of management, addressed the American Association for Budget and Program Analysis at a meeting April 21, on the subject "What's Wrong with Bureaucracy? A Look at the Specifics." At the 1977 annual conference of the Association for Systems Managers at the Washington Hilton, April 24-27, he spoke on "Dealing with Conflict."

The School of Engineering and Applied Science hosted a two-day solar heating and cooling commercialization workshop at the Marvin Center, May 4-5, sponsored by the Energy Research and Development Administration. Participants included nationally known solar energy experts in industry, government, and academia. Workshop organizer ALI B. CAMBEL, professor of engineering and applied science and director, energy programs, served as a session moderator. HAROLD LIEBOWITZ, professor of engineering and applied science and dean, School of Engineering and Applied Science, delivered a keynote address.

ANTHONY V. FIACCO, professor of operations research, presented an invited paper, "Sensitivity Analysis in Nonlinear Programming," to a conference entitled "Optimization Days 1977" at Concordia University, Montreal, May 5-6.

DENNIS E. GALE, assistant professor of urban and regional planning, gave a paper on "Transferable Development Rights for Land Use Planning" at a seminar on growth control held as a part of a city planning symposium at the University of Pennsylvania, April 21.

DONALD GROSS, professor of operations research and acting chairman, department of operations research, presented a seminar to the faculty and students of the department of industrial engineering and management systems at Pennsylvania State University, April 28. The title of this invited talk was "Queueing Models for Spares Provisioning."

ROBERT A. HADLEY, associate professor of history, gave an illustrated lecture titled "The Seljuks and the Ottomans," April 7, in the Smithsonian Associates historical and cultural lectures series on the artistic achievements of the various civilizations of ancient and modern Anatolia entitled "Turkish Delight Ancient and Modern."

SAMUEL HALPERIN, director, Institute for Educational Leadership, spoke at the annual seminar of the Education Writers Association on the topic "New Directions for Federal Education Policy," April 21, in Washington.

PETER F. KLAREN, associate professor of history, gave a lecture on "The Formation of a Rural Working Class in Peru, 1860-1930" at the Instituto Nacional de Cultura, Lima, in April. He also lectured at various local universities and was the subject of a feature article-interview in the Sunday Supplement of the Lima newspaper El Correo while on sabbatical during the spring semester in Peru.

THELMA Z. LAVINE, Elton professor of philosophy and chairman, department of philosophy, presented a lecture entitled "Ideologies and Utopias: Changing Explanations" sponsored by the departments of philosophy, sociology, political science, and history at the College of New Rochelle, New York, on April 20.

NORMA M. LOESER, professor of business administration, was a featured speaker at the 1977 annual conference of the Association for Systems Managers at the Washington Hilton, April 24-27, speaking on team effectiveness.

DORN C. MCGRATH, JR., professor of urban planning and chairman, department of urban and regional planning, lectured on "The City Planning Profession - Who? How Many? What Do They Do?" for the Smithsonian Resident Associate Program, April 19.

ANTHONY L. MESCHER, assistant professor of biology,delivered a lecture entitled "Epithelial and Neural Influences in Limb Regeneration" at the symposium on animal regeneration held at Purdue University, May 5-6.

TURKER OZDOGAN, assistant professor of ceramics, is currently exhibiting his ceramics works in a two-man show with G.W. alumnus Zeki Findikoglu, sponsored by the American Turkish Association and the Middle East Institute, at 1761 N Street, N.W., through May 30.

VLADIMIR PETROV, professor of international affairs, took part in a series of meetings, April 5, 19, and May 3, at the Center for Strategic and International Studies at Georgetown University on the topic "The Lessons of Detente."

LOIS G. SCHWOERER, professor of history, has delivered the following three papers recently: "Press and Parliament in the Revolution of 1689,"at the Renaissance Colloquium, Folger Institute of Renaissance and Eighteenth Century Studies, April 21; "Propaganda and the Revolution of 1688-89," at the Dilthey Society, March 31; and "The Glorious Revolution: New Perspectives," at Phi Alpha Theta History Honorary Society, March 24.

ARTHUR H. SMITH, assistant professor of painting, recently had an exhibition entitled "Editions of One" at the Fine Arts Pavilion of Montgomery College, Takoma Park campus. He is also showing his works with those of WILLIAM T. WOODWARD, assistant professor of painting, and J. FRANKLIN WRIGHT, assistant professor of drawing and graphics, in a current exhibition at the Pension Building sponsored by the Art Trust of the Superior Court.

LORETTA M. STALLINGS, professor of human kinetics and leisure studies, conducted two workshops at the perceptual-motor skills conference sponsored by the Mid-East Learning Resource System and the D.C. Public Schools, April 5.

-more-

CYNTHIA L. WALKER, instructor in English, presented a paper entitled "From Pinafores to Pinballs: An Evolution of Subversive Opera" in the film and literature section of the Popular Culture Association's seventh national convention held in Baltimore, April 27-30.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Assistant to Director	Health Staff Seminar	Sheran McManus or Gil Stotler 872-1390
Research Assistant	Social Research Group	Philip W. Wirtz 331-8706
Research Assistant	First Federal Congress Project	Charlene Bickford ext. 6777
Research Associate (2) Research Assistant	Biostatistics Center	Joan Young 657-2370
Research Assistant	Women's Health Study, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology	Merritt Wilkinson ext. 2608
Research Assistant	Clinical Engineering	Dr. Orthner ext. 3866

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, May 23, 1977 (91)

faculty newsnotes

HONORS

ELIZABETH A. CRISP, associate clinical professor of obstetrics and gynecology, was presented the Distinguished Alumna Award by Texas Women's University at the university's homecoming activities, April 15, in Denton, Texas.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

FRANK D. ALLAN, professor of anatomy and director, audiovisual education, Medical Center, was program chairman for an Association of Biomedical Communications Directors meeting held May 17-19 in Indianapolis. In addition, he is moderating a panel discussion entitled "ABCD Reports an Annual Survey: Biocommunication Management in Action" at the meetings of the Health Sciences Communication Association in Indianapolis, May 23.

A. BARRY BELMAN, associate professor of urology and of child health and development, was a guest panelist on the Society for Pediatric Urology program on vesicoureteral reflux at the annual meeting of the American Urological Association.

LEONARD MAGSAMEN, chief media specialist, Medical Center audiovisual services, and SHELLEY BADER, director, audiovisual study center, Himmelfarb Library, were coordinators of a forum entitled "Producer Meets Librarian" on May 22, at the meeting of the Health Sciences Communication Association in Indianapolis.

ELDOR O. PEDERSON, assistant professor of geography and regional science, presented a paper entitled "The Office in the Sector of Wealth: The Location of Corporate Management Functions in the City" at the annual meeting of the Association of American Geographers in Salt Lake City, April 24-27. He also chaired a session entitled "Urban Electoral Geography" at the meeting.

Personnel Notices see reverse.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Scientist	Civil, Mechanical & Environmental Engineering	Prof. Jones ext. 6929
Research Assistant	Pharmacology	Dr. Klubes ext. 2924
Research Assistant	Population Information Program, Science Communication Division	Irvin Mohler ext. 4801

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, June 13, 1977 (92)

SUMMER ENERGY CONSERVATION -- The need to conserve energy is of continuing importance, particularly in these summer months. The cost per square foot of electricity has risen by 59% since 1972. At the same time, the Physical Plant Department wishes to express appreciation for the efforts of occupants of smaller buildings who have cooperated by turning off lights and window air conditioners when not needed. Through these efforts and others like them the university's consumption of electricity has decreased by 12% from 1971-72 to 1975-76.

NOTARIES PUBLIC -- There are now two Notaries Public at the university to serve the needs of the university community. They are Vickie J. Baker in the Office of Student Financial Aid, 3rd Floor, Rice Hall, and Blanche F. Smith, Business Affairs Office, 5th Floor, Rice Hall.

PARKING RENEWALS -- Faculty and administrative staff are reminded that the 1976-1977 parking permits will expire on Thursday, June 30. All those who wish to continue parking in university parking facilities must renew their parking permits no later than June 30. Parking renewals are obtained in the Parking Office at 2211 H Street, N.W. between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

ROBERT M. DILLON, professorial lecturer in engineering, and Stanley W. Crawley. Steel Buildings: Analysis and Design. (2nd ed., revised) New York: John Wiley & Sons, 1977.

DANA D. FISCHER, assistant professor of political science and international affairs. "The International Court of Justice: A Test of Suggested Reforms," International Lawyer (Winter 1977).

DORN C. MCGRATH, JR., professor of urban planning and chairman, department of urban and regional planning. "Land Use Controls," Proceedings of Regional Seminar on Land Use, Land Use Controls, and Land Use Planning (American Right-of-Way Associations, April 1977).

E.O. PEDERSON, assistant professor of geography and regional science. Office Location: An International Bibliography (Council of Planning Librarians Exchange Bibliography 1278). Monticello, Illinois: Council of Planning Librarians, 1977.

-more-

SONYA A. QUITSLUND, assistant professor of religion. "A Theological Case for the Ordination of Women," in Thomas M. McFadden (ed.). Theology Confronts a Changing World. West Mystic: 23rd Publications, 1977.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

FRANK D. ALLAN, professor of anatomy and director, audiovisual education, Medical Center, has been elected to serve for two years as a board member of the Association of Biomedical Communications Directors.

FERNANDO BELAUNDE-TERRY, visiting professor of urban history and planning, is for the second year in succession spending the summer in his native Peru. A former president of Peru and founder of the Accion Populaire Party, he left after a military coup in 1968. A change in government now permits his return, and his arrival in Lima was cheered by a crowd gathered at the airport. Interviews with him were published in several newspapers and his picture appeared on the cover of the May 9 issue of Caretas, Peru's chief news magazine.

DAVID S. BROWN, professor of management, has returned from a visit to Peru where he observed development efforts being undertaken there. While in Lima he addressed students and faculty of the University of Lima on the subject "Some Observations on the First Hundred Days of the Carter Administration."

BEN BURDETSKY, professor of personnel and labor relations, addressed the Southeastern Cooperative Education Association at its annual meeting in Roanoke, Va., on May 10. He emphasized labor force growth, demographic changes, occupational and industrial projections for the decade ahead, and other data essential for cooperative and vocational education planning.

JAMES E. CLIFFORD, director, Personnel Services, has been elected president of the local chapter of the College and University Personnel Association and appointed chairman of the wage and salary committee of the Hospital Council, personnel directors division.

JAMES E. FALK, associate professor of operations research, presented an invited paper, co-authored with Jerome Bracken of the Institute for Defense Analyses, entitled "Particular Economic Equilibrium" to the TIMS/ORSA joint national meeting in San Francisco, May 9-11. At the same meeting, Faiz A. Al-Khayyal, research assistant, Institute for Management Science and Engineering, presented a paper, co-authored with Professor Falk, entitled "An Algorithm for Biconvex Programming Problems." Professor Falk also presented, at George Mason University on February 25, an invited talk entitled "Problems in Nonconvex Programming" to the mathemetics department's students and faculty. In December 1976, he presented an invited paper entitled "A Stochastic Scheduling Optimization Problem," at the EURO II conference in Stockholm.

DANA D. FISCHER, assistant professor of political science and international affairs, was elected to the executive council and the executive committee of the American Society of International Law at its April 1977 annual meeting held in San Francisco.

DONALD GROSS, professor and acting chairman, department of operations research, was invited to chair the session on queueing applications at the TIMS/ORSA joint national meeting held May 9-11 in San Francisco. At the meeting he also presented a paper entitled "Some Practical Considerations in the Application of Finite Source Queueing Models," co-authored with ZEEV BARZILY, assistant research professor of operations research, and Henry D. Kahn.

-more-

FLORENCE E. HESSER, director, Reading Center, School of Education, presented an invited paper entitled "The Multidisciplinary Diagnostic Team Concept: The Analysis and Synthesis of Information," at the pre-conference meetings of the disabled readers' committee at the annual conference of the International Reading Association held April 30, in Miami.

GARTH P. MCCORMICK, professor of applied science, gave an invited talk, "Second-order Convergence Using a Modified Armijo Step-size Rule for Function Minimization," at the IX International Symposium on Mathematical Programming in Budapest, Hungary, last August. More recently, he gave an invited seminar to the faculty and students of the mathematical sciences department at Johns Hopkins University, February 17, on "Strategies for Unconstrained Nonconvex Optimization." At the TIMS/ORSA joint national meeting held May 9-11 in San Francisco, he participated in an invited panel discussion on "Guidelines for Computational Testing in Mathematical Programming."

ROGER N. MILLEN, associate professor of engineering, was elected regional councilor, southeast region, of the Omega Rho honor society for operations research at the joint national meeting of TIMS/ORSA held in San Francisco, May 9-11.

LENORE MILLER, curator, Dimock Gallery, was interviewed on Sunday, May 22, by Anne Blair on WGMS radio concerning the Dimock Gallery's 10th anniversary exhibition, a showing of paintings by Washington area artists continuing through June 17.

BENJAMIN NIMER, professor of political science and international affairs, participated in a discussion on southern Africa on the Pauline Frederick international affairs program at the end of May, on National Public Radio. He has been appointed chairman of the Washington region of American Professors for Peace in the Middle East, as of last month.

AHMED K. NOOR, professor of engineering and applied science, presented a paper on "Thermal Stress Analysis of Double-layered Grids" at the second annual ASCE Engineering Mechanics Specialty Conference, North Carolina State University, Raleigh, May 23-25.

HARRY R. PAGE, professor of business administration and associate dean for academic affairs, School of Government and Business Administration, served on the general program committee for the 62nd annual International Purchasing Conference held in Washington, May 22-25. At the conference, attended by 2,800 purchasing executives, he chaired a workshop on "Stimulating Technology through Purchasing" and presented a paper on "The Emerging Purchasing Environment." He also participated in the annual workshop of the National Association of Purchasing Management in Chicago, June 2-5.

SONYA A. QUITSLUND, assistant professor of religion, gave a lecture entitled "A Consideration of Some of the Problems and Issues Facing an Emerging Feminist Group" in Raleigh, N.C., to the Raleigh-Durham Taskforce on Women in Church and Society, May 19. At a convention of the College Theology Society held at St. Mary's College, South Bend, Ind., June 3, she convened the working sessions on women and religion and read a paper entitled "Putting the Finger on the Sore Spot: Sexuality." She has been elected to the national board of directors of the College Theology Society.

LOIS G. SCHWOERER, professor of history, served as moderator of the papers on "Patronage and Politics" at the Folger Library conference on Patronage in Renaissance Europe, held May 20-21.

FREDERIC R. SIEGEL, professor of geochemistry and chairman, department of geology, presented a paper entitled "Suspensate Minerology of the Chilean Archipelago, 42°-55°S Latitude" on May 31 at the spring meeting of the American Geophysical Union, Washington. Co-authors were Jack W. Pierce, adjunct professor of geology and curator, Division of Sedimentology, Smithsonian Institution, and F.T. Dulong, graduate student in geology.

MAIDA R. WITHERS, associate professor of human kinetics and leisure studies, presented and performed in "Put on the Music, Let's Dance" at the Warner Theater as part of the City '77 dance festival sponsored by the Washington Performing Arts Society on May 7. The work, based on the music and dances of the 1930s, was performed by the Dance Construction Company, of which Professor Withers is the director and founder. Choreo 18, a dance company in Rockville, Md., and the Essex Community College dance company both recently performed a work choreographed by Withers titled "Laser."

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Coach, Basketball and Volleyball	Intercollegiate Athletics for Women	Lynn George ext. 6283
Research Engineer	Engineering Administration	John Pressley ext. 4987

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, June 27, 1977 (93)

UNIVERSITY COORDINATOR FOR ACCESS FOR THE HANDICAPPED -- Assistant Provost for Affirmative Action Marianne R. Phelps has been appointed by President Elliott as university coordinator for compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Section 504 requires the university to provide access for the handicapped to all programs including employment and to designate an employee to coordinate the university's compliance efforts.

Assistant Provost Phelps will be coordinating or developing plans for compliance; conducting the self-evaluation required of the university by the law; providing counsel to those officers of the university whose areas of responsibilities are affected by Section 504; consulting with handicapped persons and/or their representatives in the development of plans for compliance; and recommending to the university administration policies and actions which, after consultation and study, appear to be required for compliance.

Questions relating to access for the handicapped or to aspects of plans for compliance should be directed to Assistant Provost Phelps, 8th Floor, Rice Hall, telephone, 676-6508.

REPORTING EMPLOYEE INJURIES -- The Labor Department requires that employee injuries be reported within 48 hours, under the Workers' Compensation Act. Recently there have been several cases that were not reported until some weeks later. The Labor Department has reminded the Office of Safety and Security that penalties of up to $500 may be imposed for failure to report employee injuries promptly. The cooperation of all departments is asked in submitting forms as outlined in the memorandum of October 29, 1975 (from the Office of Safety and Security) regarding investigation of injuries. Additional copies of the memorandum are available from the office.

SARP RECEPTIONS -- University faculty and staff are especially invited to attend the informal receptions with freshmen and their parents which are part of the Summer Advance Registration Program. The receptions will be held on the Marvin Center Third Floor Terrace from 5 to 6 p.m. on June 28, 29, 30, and July 1, Tuesday through Friday, respectively; and on July 5, 6, 7, and 8, also Tuesday through Friday.

Approximately 150 freshmen and parents are expected to attend each of the advance registration sessions. Further information may be obtained from Rita Goldman in the Student Activities Office, ext. 6555.

CHANGE IN MARVIN CENTER CAFETERIA SERVICE -- Beginning Tuesday, July 5, the Second Floor Cafeteria of the Marvin Center will offer a la carte service for breakfast and lunch, Mondays through Fridays. The hours will be 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. for breakfast, and 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. for lunch. The Second Floor Cafeteria will be closed for dinner, beginning July 5, due to little usage.

The "All You Can Eat" specials in the Second Floor Cafeteria will be continued at breakfast and lunch for holders of coupon books, which are available in the Food Service Office, Second Floor of the Marvin Center. Hours for the specials will be the same as for the a la carte service.

The hours of the Rathskeller will remain the same, 8 a.m. to 12 midnight Mondays through Fridays, with the current a la carte service continuing.

The hours of the Second Floor Cafeteria and the Rathskeller, announced as beginning Tuesday, July 5, will remain in effect through Wednesday, August 24.

In the period Thursday, August 25, through Wednesday, August 31, the Second Floor Cafeteria will be closed and the Rathskeller will be open from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.

On Thursday, September 1, all food facilities in the Marvin Center will go on the fall schedule and hours will be posted.

SECURITY NOTE -- There have been recent thefts of Selectric IBM typing elements from typewriters in offices around the campus. Nine were stolen from typewriters on the Sixth Floor of the University Library. The Office of Safety and Security has previously recommended that all typewriters be secured to their respective surfaces, and that typing elements and rollers be removed at the end of each day and locked in a cabinet or desk drawer. This removal is said to take less than 30 seconds. For the benefit of the university community, these recommendations are given again.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

E. LAKIN PHILLIPS, professor of psychology and director, Counseling Center. Counseling & Psychotherapy: A Behavioral Approach. New York: Wiley Interscience, 1977.

———. Day To Day Anxiety Management. Long Island, N.Y.: Robert E. Krieger, 1977.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

ELEANORE R. FICKE, reference librarian, University Library, attended an institute on women in library management, sponsored by the U.S. Office of Education, held at the School of Information and Library Studies, State University of New York at Buffalo, June 6-10.

FRED FRISHMAN, professorial lecturer in operations research, has been elected a fellow of the American Statistical Association.

DENNIS E. GALE, assistant professor of urban and regional planning, presented a lecture on "Transferable Development Rights as a Land Use Planning Device" at a short course conducted jointly by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Urban Land Institute, GWU, and several other universities. The lecture was presented at HUD on June 15. In addition, Gale and two colleagues have been nominated for a national meritorious program award by the National Capital Chapter of the American Institute of Planners. The nomination is in response to a computer-based system for assessing the fiscal impacts of urban growth, the development and design of which Gale directed in 1973-74.

DONALD GROSS, professor and acting chairman, department of operations research, was invited to give a paper entitled "Queueing Models for Repairable Item Spares Provisioning" at a Cornell University operations research/industrial engineering Ph.D. conference on June 5-7.

PHILLIP D. GRUB, Aryamehr professor of multinational management and special assistant to the president for international program development, and Gerhard Nothelfer von Hauenschild, Aryamehr research scholar, recently completed a two-month world tour on behalf of The George Washington University and the Academy of International Business, for which Grub has just concluded a two-year term as international president. Their 15-country tour included Japan, where Grub addressed the American Chamber of Commerce and held meetings with several Japanese multinational corporations having affiliations with GWU; Korea, where he gave addresses at the Korean Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the Korean Traders Scholarship Association, Chung-ang University, the Korean Society for Personnel Management, and the Korean Bankers Association. Von Hauenschild spoke on world tourism development to the Korean Travel Association and both he and Grub addressed the student body at Hankuk University of Foreign Studies. In Taiwan, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Thailand, Greece, Spain, Iran, Kuwait and the Gulf States they spoke with ministries of tourism on the role of tourism in economic development and on the graduate program in tourism development of GW's department of human kinetics and leisure studies. In Kuwait, both were participants in a special conference on the role of tourism and multinational business in economic development sponsored by the undersecretary for tourism. In Greece, Grub spoke to the student body of the University of Thessaloniki on "The Role of Multinational Corporations in Economic Development." After his return, Grub participated in a briefing of congressional delegates June 1, on Capitol Hill, concerning legislative impact on multinational business with an emphasis on exports. He is a member of President Carter's Regional Export Expansion Council.

HAROLD LIEBOWITZ, professor of engineering and applied science and dean, School of Engineering and Applied Science, has been elected a fellow of the American Society for Metals in "recognition of his distinguished contributions in the fields of metals and materials." He has also been appointed a member of the National Academy of Engineering Advisory Committee on International Activities.

DONALD C. LINKOWSKI, associate professor and chairman, department of education, attended a national policy and program development conference on the job placement function in vocational rehabilitation, June 8-10, in Berkeley, California. He was invited to attend as president-elect of the National Council on Rehabilitation Education.

LARRY MCGOWAN, professor of obstetrics and gynecology, has had his term on the cancer control intervention programs review committee of the Division of Cancer Control and Rehabilitation of the National Cancer Institute extended to June 1979. He has served for the past two years.

NEAL MC KELVEY, instructor in health care administration, presented an invited paper entitled "A Voice for Childbirth Educators in Regional Health Planning" at the International Childbirth Education Association's U.S. Eastern-Southern regional conference held at Georgetown University, June 3-5.

JUDITH A. PLOTZ, associate professor of English, presented a paper entitled "Tommy, Harry, and the Anti-Social Virtues: A Reading of The History of Sandford and Merton" at a conference on the literary aspects of children's literature which was held at Piedmont College, June 10-11.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Assistant (chemical determination)	Division of Renal Diseases	Claire Rescher ext. 4243
Research Assistant (editorial writer)	Neurology	L.H. Smith ext. 4063

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, July 18, 1977 (94)

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY RECEIVES GRANT FOR TELEVISION NEWS STUDY CENTER -- The University Library has received a $455,753 grant from the Sarah Scaife Foundation to establish a television news center for the use and promotion of the Vanderbilt University Television News Archive Collection. This videotape collection contains all the week-day evening news broadcasts of the three major networks beginning in 1968 and special network broadcasts such as the Watergate hearings.

Under the supervision of the University Library's audiovisual department, funds from the three-year grant will be used to establish George Washington as a prototype regional video center where equipment, staff, and facilities will be available for individuals who want to use the tapes. Through the GW Library, users may borrow from Vanderbilt complete newscasts, or research compilations by subject matter. Listings of both can be found in indexes and abstracts which are published by the Vanderbilt Archive.

Special facilities for the center will include a 75-seat multi-purpose room, equipped for large screen video projection, and video playback units for individual viewing in both open and closed environments. Under the provisions of the grant, the University Library will also develop a directory of video resources in the Washington metropolitan area as a principal tool for both experienced and inexperienced video users.

"The goal of the grant would be not only to make the Vanderbilt Archive conveniently available to students, researchers, faculty, professionals and government staff, but to educate them about the potential of the Archive for their specific needs," commented University Librarian Rupert C. Woodward.

SMITH CENTER TENNIS COURTS -- The Smith Center Tennis Courts are open for use. Reservations may be made in person or by telephoning 676-6810. Reservations may be made only one day in advance and only one reservation is allowed at a time.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

SAMUEL HALPERIN, director, Institute for Educational Leadership. "The Crisis of Federalism in Education...And What Might Be Done About It," Journal of Education (Boston University, May 1977).

-More-

SAR A. LEVITAN, professor of economics and director, Center for Social Policy Studies, and Robert Taggart. Jobs for the Disabled. The Johns Hopkins University Press, 1977.

MILDRED M. REYNOLDS, adjunct assistant professor of psychiatry and behavioral sciences (social work). "Privacy and Privilege: Patients', Professionals', and the Public's Rights," Clinical Social Work Journal, Vol. 5 (Spring 1977).

DONALD P. ROTHSCHILD, professor of law and co-director, Institute of Law and Aging. "The Institute of Law and Aging: Learning to Work with the Elderly," Trial, Vol. 13, No. 5 (May 1977).

RUTH A. WALLACE, associate professor of sociology. "Emile Durkheim and the Civil Religion Concept," Review of Religious Research, Vol. 18, No. 3 (Spring 1977).

HONORS

SAMUEL HALPERIN, director, Institute for Educational Leadership, was selected to receive the 1977 Distinguished Service Award of the National Association of State Boards of Education.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

PAUL CHURCHILL, assistant professor of philosophy, presented three lectures on the topic "Alienation and Authenticity: A History of Two Ideas," as a participant in the GW Alumni College held at Airlie Conference Center, Warrenton, Va., June 23-26.

GLENN W. GEELHOED, associate professor of surgery, has recently completed a round-the-world trip serving as visiting professor of surgery in West and East Africa. He was invited to Nigeria where he lectured in Kano and at the Universities of Ibadan and Lagos. On an invited tour of Kenya,he addressed the Kenyan Medical Association in Mombassa and the Kenyatta Teaching Hospital of the University of Nairobi. Returning through India, he crossed the International Dateline in time to participate in a symposium on microaggregates called by the U.S. Army Research and Development Command at Letterman Army Institute of Research, San Francisco.

MICHAEL GROW, assistant professorial lecturer in history, has been appointed senior researcher at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, Smithsonian Institution, Washington.

SAMUEL HALPERIN, director, Institute for Educational Leadership, served as senior fellow of the University of Nebraska School of Law-Department of Educational Administration "Collegium of Equal Educational Opportunity," and addressed the policies commission of the Missouri State Teachers Association.

HAROLD C. HINTON, professor of political science and international affairs and member, Institute for Sino-Soviet Studies, spoke to a meeting of Coast Guard Reserve Officers at Governors Island, N.Y. on the subject of the Sino-Soviet confrontation, June 11; on the foreign policy of the Hua Kuo-feng leadership at the Sixth Sino-American Conference on Mainland China in Washington, June 15-17; and on Chinese policy toward the Korean peninsula, June 20-22, at a conference on Northeast Asia in Washington sponsored by the Stanford Research Institute.

-More-

CHARLES O'REAR, professor and chairman, department of forensic sciences, testified on June 23 before the Virginia State Crime Commission which, under a mandate from the 1976 General Assembly, is studying criminal sexual assault.

RICHARD C. THORNTON, professor of history and member, Institute for Sino-Soviet Studies, visited the People's Republic of China from June 13 to 22 at the invitation of a colleague at the U.S. Liaison Office in Peking. He also visited Tokyo from June 23 to July 2. He lectured there on the general subject of the current situation in China.

RUTH A. WALLACE, associate professor of sociology, has been appointed by the executive council of the American Sociological Association to chair the Jessie Bernard Award selection committee.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Associate (2)	Pharmacology	Harold Harder ext. 2917
Director of Research and Materials Development (attorney)	Institute for Law and Aging	Alma Yeomans ext. 7259
Lab Technician (part-time)	Pathology	Mrs. Genta ext. 3391

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor Andrew Tonks, Assistant Editor

Monday, August 1, 1977 (95)

NEW DIRECTOR OF STUDENT ACTIVITIES -- Rita P. Goldman has been named director of student activities, effective September 1, 1977. She succeeds Leila Lesko who has held the position for the past year and who has been associated with the university since 1973.

Before coming to the university, Rita Goldman was director of college events at Marymount Manhattan College. She holds the Master of Arts in Student Personnel Administration from Teachers College, Columbia University, and is a doctoral candidate in the School of Education.

CONSTRUCTION NOTE -- During the next two weeks, through approximately August 15, pedestrians using the University Yard between Corcoran and Stockton Halls may be inconvenienced by construction work. (The University Yard is the block bounded by 20th and 21st Streets and H and G, N.W.) A contractor will be ditching across the yard and laying water pipe to provide air conditioning for chemistry laboratories and the Charles R. Naeser Lecture Hall, now being remodeled in Corcoran Hall.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

ORMOND A. SEAVEY, assistant professor of English. "Adventurers and True Believers" (review of John Seelye. Prophetic Waters: The River in Early American Life and Literature.), The Nation (June 11, 1977).

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

DANA D. FISCHER, assistant professor of political science and international affairs, presented a paper entitled "The International Protection of Human Rights" at the Academy of Political Science annual meeting in New York on June 13.

PHILLIP D. GRUB, Aryamehr professor of multinational management and assistant to the president for international programs, presented a talk entitled "The Need for Leadership in Government World-Wide" as the featured speaker at the annual meeting of the Wolcott Foundation in Tampa, Florida, June 19. He also addressed the breakfast meeting of the High-Twelve International Convention, in Tampa, June 20, on the topic "World Problems and Economic Diplomacy." He is the recipient of a special award from Chung-Ang University in Seoul, Korea, for his role in establishing the George Washington University-Chung-Ang University Memorial Library. The library, now consisting of more than 2,000 books in business and public administration, was made possible through the contributions of many GWU professors and has become one of the largest English language libraries in Korea. Similar libraries have been established by Professor Grub in leading universities in Iran, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, and Poland.

-more-

GARTH P. MCCORMICK, professor of applied science, presented an invited paper entitled "Idealized Exact Penalty Functions" at the Third International Nonlinear Programming Symposium, Madison, Wisconsin, July 11-13.

SAMUEL B. MOLINA, assistant professor of art, has been elected to the board of directors of the Art Directors Club of Metropolitan Washington. In addition, he has been appointed chairman of the club's education committee.

MARY SIMMONS, trade book supervisor, bookstore, attended a management seminar of the National Association of College Stores at Oberlin College, Ohio, in early July.

RICHARD C. THORNTON, professor of history and international affairs and member, Institute for Sino-Soviet Studies, served on the panel "Toward the Maintenance of Strategic Nuclear Stability," at the national security affairs conference entitled "Toward Cooperation, Stability, and Balance" held at the National Defense University, Ft. McNair, July 18-20.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Associate (2)	Hematology-Oncology	Kenneth Goldstein ext. 4200
Research Assistant	1st Federal Congress Project	Charlene Bickford ext. 6777
Research Assistant	Biostatistics Center	Joan Young 657-2370
Research Engineer	Engineering Administration	Joseph Kalinsky ext. 7496
Coordinator for Technician Training Program	Cooperative Employment and Training Program, SEAS	J.G. Waggener ext. 7191
Research Scientists	Joint Institute for Advancement of Flight Sciences, NASA Langley Research Center, Hampton, Va.	Dr. S.W. Yuan ext. 6665

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor

Monday, August 15, 1977 (96)

LIBRARIES AND BOOKSTORE HOURS -- For the convenience of the university community, information on the university libraries and bookstore hours through Labor Day appears on page 2.

faculty newsnotes

HONORS

JOHN MERROW, executive producer of the Institute for Educational Leadership's "Options in Education" program, broadcast by National Public Radio, received the National Association of State Education Department Information Officers Award for Excellence in Educational Communication on July 10, 1977.

PUBLICATIONS

BEN BURDETSKY, professor of personnel and labor relations. "The 'Marshall Plan' to Meet New Needs." Worklife Magazine (U.S. Department of Labor), August,1977.

KENNETH C. FISCHER, director of the Institute for Educational Leadership's Postsecondary Education Convening Authority. "National Resources for Lifelong Learning," The Michigan Librarian, Summer, 1977, Vol. 43, No. 6.

SUSAN H. HERTZ, assistant professorial lecturer, Department of Anthropology. "The Politics of the Welfare Mothers Movement: A Case Study." Signs: Journal of Women in Culture and Society, Vol. 3, No. 3, Spring, 1977.

JOHN W. KENDRICK, professor of economics. The Formation and Stocks of Total Capital. New York: The National Bureau of Economic Research.

———The National Wealth of the United States by Major Sector and Industry (assisted by K. Lee and J. Lomask). New York: The Conference Board.

JOHN M. LACHIN, assistant research professor and statistician, National Cooperative Gallstone Study, Biostatistics Center. "Sample Size Determinations for r X c Comparative Trials," Biometrics, June, 1977.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

DENNIS E. GALE, assistant professor of urban and regional planning, has been appointed by the county executive of Anne Arundel County (Annapolis) to the Growth Management Advisory Committee of the county. The committee will advise the county on the preparation of a planning and growth management program for land use. Professor Gale will concentrate his efforts on the preservation of agricultural land. Professor Gale delivered a paper, "Metropolitan Tax Base Sharing: Applications at the Neighborhood Scale," before the Property Tax Forum, a forum sponsored by the International Association of Assessing Officers of the Fund for Public Policy Research. He gave the paper July 14, 1977, at the Mayflower Hotel.

-more-

STEVEN H. LIPSIUS, assistant clinical professor of psychiatry and behavioral sciences and of obstetrics and gynecology, presented a paper entitled "Mutual Enrichment of Individual and Group Processes in Combined Psychotherapy" at the annual meeting of The American Group Psychotherapy Association in San Francisco, February 4, 1977. He moderated a panel on "Common Threads of the Sexual Dysfunction Therapies," at the annual meeting of the American Psychiatric Association in Toronto on May 3, 1977.

FAY C. SCHREIBMAN, library supervisor, audiovisual department, the University Library, spoke at the Archival Resource Seminar which was part of the University Film Association Conference at the University of Maryland during the first week of August. Her subject was the television news study center being established in the University Library with the recent Sarah Scaife Foundation grant.

The University Library

Regular summer hours continue through Thursday, August 23

Wednesday, August 24	8:30 a.m. to 10 p.m.
Thursday and Friday, August 25 and 26	8:30 a.m. to 7 p.m.
Saturday and Sunday, August 27 and 28	12 noon to 6 p.m.
Monday through Wednesday, August 29 to 31	8:30 a.m. to 7 p.m.
Thursday and Friday, September 1 and 2	8:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.
Saturday, September 3	10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Sunday, September 4, and Monday, September 5, Labor Day	Closed

The Jacob Burns Law Library

Regular summer hours continue through Sunday, August 21

Beginning Monday, August 22, hours will be:

Monday through Friday	8 a.m. to 12 midnight
Saturday and Sunday	9 a.m. to 12 midnight

Monday, September 5, Labor Day	Closed

The Paul Himmelfarb Health Sciences Library

Regular summer hours with the exception of five days
Saturday and Sunday, August 27 and 28	Closed for catalogue conversion
Friday, September 2	7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Saturday and Sunday, September 3 and 4	10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Monday, September 5, Labor Day	Closed

The University Bookstore

Regular summer hours with the exception of five days
Thursday, August 18	8:45 a.m. to 7 p.m.
Friday, August 19	8:45 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Thursday and Friday, September 1 and 2	8:45 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.
Saturday, September 3	9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.
Monday, September 5, Labor Day	Closed

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Senior Staff Scientist	Institute for Management Science & Engineering Program in Logistics	W.L. Wilkinson ext. 7512
Associate Director for Research	Institute for Educational Leadership, Family Impact Seminar	Sidney Johnson III 833-1737
Research Assistant/ Mathematician	VA Research Center for Cardiovascular Data Processing (Off Campus)	Mrs. A. Sowa 389-7221
Collection Analysis Consultant	University Library	Marty Anderson ext. 6455

-more-

Title	Department	Contact
Research Assistant in Pathology (Electron Microscopy Section)	Pathology	Dr. Orenstein ext. 2930
Research Assistant	Clinical Engineering	Dr. Orthner ext. 3866
Research Assistant (Computers)	ECG Computer Center	Jean Hanmer ext. 3106
Project Director, Population Information Program	Department of Medical and Public Affairs, Science Communication Division	Mr. Irvin Mohler ext. 4839
Research Associate, Population Information Program	Department of Medical and Public Affairs, Science Communication Division	Mr. Irvin Mohler ext. 4839

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor David Baruch, Assistant Editor

Special Edition for Tuesday, September 6, 1977

(97)

HANDICAPPED STUDENT SERVICES OFFICE -- The Division of Student Affairs has a new Handicapped Student Services Office located in Room 410, Rice Hall, telephone 676-7810. The Handicapped Student Services coordinator is Dr. Kathleen Christensen, who has been a staff psychologist at the University Counseling Center for the past two years. University faculty and staff are invited to refer handicapped students in need of special assistance to Dr. Christensen. Office hours are: 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., Tuesdays and Thursdays; and 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Fridays. In Dr. Christensen's absence, Gail Short Hanson, dean of students, may be consulted.

IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION REQUIREMENTS-- Since July 18, international students holding F or J visas have been required to obtain the signature of the director, international student advising, in addition to the signatures of their course instructors and deans when they are seeking a reduction in their course loads through the drop-add process. This procedure will help assure that these students maintain full-time student status in compliance with Immigration and Naturalization requirements.

Mrs. Patricia J. McMillen, director, international student advising, may be reached at 676-6860 and will be glad to answer questions concerning the procedure.

NEW ASSOCIATE LAW LIBRARIAN -- James S. Heller has been appointed associate law librarian for reader services in the Jacob Burns Law Library. Immediate past librarian of the Center for the Study of Law and Society of the University of California at Berkeley, Mr. Heller is a social studies graduate of the University of Michigan (B.A., 1971) and a cum laude graduate of the University of San Diego Law School (J.D., 1976) where he served on the staff of the University of San Diego Law Review. He is a member of the California Bar. His degree in library science is from the University of California at Berkeley (M.L.S., 1977). Mr. Heller holds a California secondary school teacher's certificate and has taught at Central High School in Detroit, Michigan.

STATUS OF UNION SECURITY NEGOTIATIONS -- The following is a statement by the Vice President for Administration and Research, The George Washington University, Dr. Carl J. Lange:

First, we would like to assure the University community that security measures will be maintained if the threatened job action by security personnel should occur.

Second, the University has been negotiating with the Federation of Special Police and Law Enforcement Officers, the union representing our security guards and patrolmen. Contrary to union charges, our negotiations have been based on our desire to provide fair and equitable wages, fringe benefits, and working conditions. We have continued to bargain in good faith with the union despite their unreasonable demands. We want the entire University community to know that we are proud of our highly professional security force who, through hard work and dedication, have established a fine reputation in their field and at the University. Our efforts to negotiate a fair contract should in no way be construed to reflect negatively on the security force.

-more-

There are three issues which are dividing the parties:

Wages - the union demanded a 34% increase for their members. They are now demanding over a 25% increase. The University is currently one of the highest-paying educational institutions in the local area for security guards and patrolmen. We cannot consider responding to such irresponsible demands which would result in gross inconsistency in University salary administration policy.

Health & Welfare Benefits Program - the University has provided for many years a uniform and competitive health and welfare package for our more than 4,000 employees. Periodic review has been conducted to assure that benefits are up-to-date. It has been our consistent policy to provide the same benefits package to all University employees. We cannot justify changing our policy to accommodate a union-sponsored benefit fund program.

Union Membership - we do not agree at this time to the union demand of a closed shop. A sizeable number of our security employees included in the bargaining unit have informed us that they do not wish to be forced to join the union.

We understand the anxiety on the part of the union which has made many unrealistic promises to its membership and is now beginning to realize that it might not be able to carry through with many of them. The union's threat of a job action is not going to have an impact on our stand on these issues. The job action process has been tried by this union on several other local employers. It has resulted in little, if any, gain for its membership while at the same time grossly imposing on others in the process.

BOOKSTORE NOTES -- Kristie Baldini is now in charge of the Book Special Order Department of the University Bookstore. All I.P.'s and Info requests should be directed to her.

Book Special Orders will be placed by the bookstore beginning Wednesday, September 14. No orders will be placed prior to that date because of university registration. This policy does not include book re-orders or replacements for Fall 1977 courses.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

RICHARD H. SCHLAGEL, professor of philosophy. "The Mind-Brain Identity Impasse." American Philosophical Quarterly, Vol. 14, No. 3, July, 1977

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

VARY COATES, associate director of the Program of Policy Studies in Science and Technology, testified before the Subcommittee on Science, Research, and Development of the House Committee on Science and Technology, at hearings reviewing the Technology Assessment Act, on August 3.

LINDA GRANT DEPAUW, professor of American history, discussed "The Decorative Arts in America" during the Winterthur Museum Summer Institute on August 5.

FREDERICK GUTHEIM, adjunct professor of American studies, attended the meeting of an advisory group on non-government organizations of the United Nations Habitat and Human Settlement Foundation in Nairobi, Kenya. He has been a U.N. consultant on housing and urban development since 1965, and was one of the organizers of the U.N. Habitat Conference.

JOHN KENDRICK, professor of economics, presented a paper entitled "Expanding Imputed Values in the National Income Accounts" at meetings of the International Association for Research in Income and Wealth, on August 20, in York, England. In September, Professor Kendrick returns full-time to his position at GW. During 1976-77 he had been on leave, serving as Chief Economist for the U.S. Department of Commerce.

DAVID MCALEAVEY, assistant professor of English, attended the Blue Ridge Writers project on June 14-26, near Critz, Virginia. He also participated in poetry reading at the Reynolda House, Wake Forest University, in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

DAVID MCALEAVEY, assistant professor of English, is serving as assistant editor of the Manassas Review. The first issue has just appeared. Characterized as a scholarly and critical journal, it is published by Northern Virginia Community College-Manassas, and is dedicated to the promotion of the work of selected "young" poets. The introductory issue concerns Terry Stokes; future issues are planned, including one on Marilyn Hacker, last year's Jenny McKean Moore Visiting Lecturer in Creative Writing at GW.

GARTH P. MCCORMICK, professor of operations research, was a scientific advisor and presented lectures at the NATO Advanced Study Institute in Waterloo, Ontario, Canada, August 2-12. McCormick spoke on the topic of "Engineering Plasticity by Mathematical Programming."

DORN C. MCGRATH, chairman of urban and regional planning, has been named honorary professor of the Universidad Nacional Frederico Villarreal, of Lima, Peru. The appointment and seal were conferred by the Vice-Rector of the University at a ceremony on August 15, at the Peruvian Embassy in Washington.

personnel notices

PERSONNEL NOTICES

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Assistant	Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Women's Health Study	Merritt A. Wilkinson ext. 2608
Research Assistant for work on NIH Grant HL-22137	Department of Pathology	Dr. Sherman Bloom ext. 2954

-more-

Title	Department	Contact
Research Assistant (bachelor's degree and some laboratory experience)	Department of Anatomy	Dr. M.J. Koering ext. 3522
Research Assistant (experience essential)	Department of Biochemistry	Dr. J.Martyn Bailey ext. 3518
Research Associate (M.S. in Biochemistry or related field)	Department of Biochemistry	Linda L. Gallo ext. 3521
Continuing Education Assistant	Continuing Engineering Education Program	J.E. Mansfield ext. 6106

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor David Baruch, Assistant Editor

Monday, September 12, 1977 (98)

NEW DIRECTOR OF EQUAL EMPLOYMENT ACTIVITIES -- Eugene Mebane, Jr., has assumed the position of director of equal employment activities at the university. He succeeds Ginger Chappell who served from July, 1975 to July of this year.

A Howard University graduate (B.S., 1968), Mr. Mebane later studied at Pennsylvania State University. He comes to George Washington from Pennsylvania State where he was personnel officer in the College of Human Development. He served there first as research assistant and then as classification analyst before becoming personnel officer. In these positions of increasing responsibility, he had extensive experience in the areas of personnel, affirmative action and equal opportunity.

As director of equal employment activities, Mr. Mebane is responsible for the university's equal opportunity programs for administrative and staff personnel. In addition to implementing policy and monitoring the affirmative action plan for administrative and staff personnel, he is available to advise managers regarding discriminatory practices and to assist employees who feel they have been subjected to discrimination. Interviews are conducted in confidence, and no contact is made with anyone outside the EEA Office without the knowledge of the employee involved. If the employee so desires, Mr. Mebane will act as a liaison between the employee and the individual or individuals against whom the discrimination is alleged.

The EEA Office is located in Rice Hall, 2121 Eye Street, N.W., 6th floor, telephone, 676-7402.

LUCE SCHOLARS PROGRAM -- The Henry Luce Foundation has invited the university to participate in the Luce Scholars Program. George Washington will be one of 60 U.S. universities taking part in the program and will be able to submit two nominations.

The purpose of the program is to provide the experience of living and working in an Asian country to 15 college graduates who might not otherwise become familiar with Asia and Asian culture.

Candidates must be U.S. citizens, no more than 29 years of age on September 1 of the year the scholarship begins. Applicants may be graduating seniors, graduate students, alumni, or faculty of the nominating university. They may not have had a significant exposure to Asia through extensive travel or residence, and their academic background and career plans may not include concentration in Asian affairs or international relations.

Interested persons should contact either Dr. Jon Quitslund, faculty advisor, at ext. 6634, or Andrea Stewart, director, Fellowship Information Center, Bldg. S, 2025 H Street, N.W., ext. 6217, early in the Fall Semester.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

BRUCE O. BOSTON, coordinator, Consortium on the Education for All Handicapped Children Act, The Institute for Educational Leadership. Education Policy and the Education for All Handicapped Children Act (P.L. 94-142). Institute for Educational Leadership, August 1977.

NOEL EPSTEIN, journalist-in-residence at the Institute for Educational Leadership. Language Ethnicity, and the Schools: Policy Alternatives for Bilingual-Bicultural Education. Institute for Educational Leadership, August 1977.

HAROLD P. GREEN, professor of law, "The Oppenheimer Case: A Study in the Abuse of Law," The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, Vol. 33, No. 7, September 1977.

LEONARD NADLER, professor of education, and Zeace Nadler, co-author. The Conference Book. Houston: Gulf Publishing Company, June 1977.

DEWEY D. WALLACE, JR., professor of religion. The Pilgrims. Wilmington: Consortium Books, 1977.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

LINDA GRANT DEPAUW, professor of American history, has been notified that at the request of the Pulitzer Prize jury, the National Historical Publications and Records Commission has nominated her volume, House of Representatives Journal, for this year's Letters competition. This is the third of a projected sixteen-volume Documentary History of the First Federal Congress, 1789-1791, and was published by Johns Hopkins University Press in January. Professor DePauw has been engaged in editing these papers under the co-sponsorship of GWU and the National Historical Publications and Records Commission since 1966. Charlene Bangs Bickford and LaVonne Siegel Hauptmann are associate editors.

YOUNG C. KIM, professor of political science and international affairs and a member of the Institute for Sino-Soviet Studies, presented a paper on the "Role of Mass Media and Politics" to the International Congress of Communication Sciences at its meeting held in West Berlin May 29-June 3. Professor Kim held a seminar at the Institute for International Relations in East Berlin in June and also conducted various seminars at a number of Institutes of the Academy of Sciences during mid-June in the U.S.S.R.

PETER F. KLARÉN, associate professor of history, participated in a panel discussion on "Aprismo" at the Peru Club of New York on August 26.

GARTH P. MCCORMICK, professor of applied science, presented an invited survey talk on factorable programming at a SHARE meeting in Washington on August 24.

LEONARD NADLER, professor of education, visited Morocco, Portugal, and Spain this summer, and met with Portuguese and Spanish human resource development people in connection with the 7th Conference of the International Federation of Training Organizations to be held in Washington in June 1978. Professor Nadler is the Program Chairperson for this conference.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Lab Instructor, Electronic-Electromechanical Technology	Cooperative Employment and Training Program, SEAS	Roger Williams, ext. 4450
Electromechanical Instructor	Cooperative Employment and Training Program, SEAS	Roger Williams, ext. 4450

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor David Baruch, Assistant Editor

Monday, September 19, 1977 (99)

ACTION OF ZONING COMMISSION -- The Zoning Commission of the District of Columbia has given preliminary approval to a request by the university that would permit construction of a building for use by the World Bank in the block bounded by 19th, 20th, F, and G streets.

In a unanimous decision at its public meeting on September 8, the Commission determined that the building should be constructed at a lower density than that proposed by the university and imposed height limitations on certain portions of the structure. The Commission's action will allow construction to a height of 130 feet on the 19th Street side and to a lesser height on the side adjacent to Concordia Church and the F Street Club.

As part of the planned unit development zoning process, the university proposed to retain the F Street Club on its present site and to preserve the Lenthall houses by moving them to a new location on 21st Street. The Zoning Commission accepted the plan and, in addition, concurred with the findings of the Joint Committee on Landmarks of the National Capital that the five houses on G Street (numbers 1908-1916) were not historically and architecturally worthy of preservation.

Charles E. Diehl, vice president and treasurer, said: "The university believes that the project as developed with the Zoning Commission reflects a workable compromise that meets the space needs of the World Bank, takes into account the views of concerned citizens, and provides necessary funds that will make possible continued planning for the university's academic cluster."

REVISED MIDDLE STATES REPORT AVAILABLE -- A revised report on the university's accreditation by the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools is on reserve in the University Library and copies may be obtained from the Office of the President. This report supersedes the evaluation team report that was issued on June 8, 1977. Following subsequent deliberations by the commission, the evaluation report, substantially revised, was prepared and adopted at the Commission's June 25 meeting.

DIRECTOR OF THE OFFICE OF SPONSORED RESEARCH -- Dr. Jack B. Bresler has assumed the position of director of the Office of Sponsored Research (as of September 8). He succeeds Mr. Calvin S. Hannum who was associated with the Office of Sponsored Research from 1969 to this year.

Dr. Bresler comes to George Washington from the Library of Congress where he was specialist in life sciences, Congressional Research Service. During the years 1967 to 1976 he was at Tufts University where he served in administrative positions including that of assistant provost and director of governmental resources. He was coordinating official on research and training matters with federal agencies and has worked with faculty and administrators in the development of research and training programs and their subsequent operation.

Dr. Bresler received his doctorate from the University of Illinois at Urbana (1957). His field is human biology and he has published in the areas of biology, medicine, genetics, and anthropology. He has taught biology at Colgate University, Bard College, and Boston and Brown universities in positions of increasing responsibility. At Boston University he was director of research development and at Brown he also taught research genetics. His background includes educational experience in freshwater biology, marine environments, and computers.

Dr. Bresler is an elected fellow, physical anthropology-zoology, of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

CHIEF SERIALS LIBRARIAN, UNIVERSITY LIBRARY -- Mrs. Janice E. Anderson is the new chief serials librarian in the University Library. She succeeds Marcia Sze Chou who held the position from October 1971 to March 1977.

A graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, Mrs. Anderson received her M.L.S. degree from Rutgers where she also pursued advanced study in art history. She was formerly associated with the Department of the Interior and Princeton University.

GWU CLUB FALL HOURS -- The George Washington University Club is now operating on its new fall schedule. The club is open on Monday from 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.; Tuesday through Friday, from 11:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.; and Saturday, from 5:30 to 10:30 p.m. The cocktail lounge is now open all day from 11:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, offering an inexpensive light menu and a self-service salad bar. Eric Mandez is at the piano from 6 to 8:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday. During Happy Hour, from 5 to 6:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, beverages are $1.00, draft beer 50¢, and complimentary cheese and crackers are served.

EXTENDED CAFETERIA HOURS -- The hours of the first floor cafeteria of the Marvin Center have been extended to 6 p.m. on a trial basis beginning today, Monday, September 19. The extended hours will be in effect Monday through Thursday. A limited menu will be served including grill items, sandwiches, etc.

NOTE: All items for The Monday Report should be received in the Office of Public Relations, Room 705, University Library, by 5 p.m. Tuesday for the issue of the week following.

faculty newsnotes

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

JOHN HELMER, associate professor of sociology, presented a paper co-authored by Louis Maisel and the annual meeting of the American Political Science Association, held in Washington, September 1-4. The paper was entitled "Analytical Problems in the Study of Presidential Advice: The Domestic Council Staff in Flux." Professor Helmer was also chairman of and a participant in a conference panel on "The Urban Agenda" at the annual meeting of The Society for the Study of Social Problems, in Chicago on September 2-5.

MARGARET MCINTYRE, professor of education, was a United States delegate to the XV World Organization Mondiale pour Education Prescholaire Congress "For the Greatest Benefit of Children" in Warsaw, Poland, August 21-30. Delegates from 37 countries met to present papers related to the field of early childhood such as pediatricians, social workers, psychologists, nurses. As part of the Congress, Professor McIntyre visited nursery schools and day care centers from Cracow to Warsaw.

HELEN O. WOLLE, Director of Counseling in Continuing Education for Women, recently returned from a month in New Zealand where she gathered data for her doctoral dissertation on women in continuing education programs in New Zealand universities. Mrs. Wolle, a candidate for the EdD in higher education, was also invited to lecture to a variety of groups including university, civil servant, secondary, and lay organizations.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor David Baruch, Assistant Editor

Monday, September 26, 1977 (100)

UNITED WAY KICKOFF-- The 1977 George Washington University United Way Campaign will have its kickoff meeting on Tuesday, October 4, at 10 a.m. in Rooms 410 - 415 in the Marvin Center. Dean of Students Gail S. Hanson, 1977 chairwoman for the campaign, will welcome those attending and introduce President Elliott who will speak, followed by Chairman Emeritus of the Board of Trustees E.K. Morris (founder of the United Givers Fund, which became the United Way). Mrs. Ian Champ-Wilson, director of Deaf Pride, and United Way loaned executive for the GW campaign, will make brief remarks. The 1977 United Way campaign film (about five minutes in length) will be shown, and packets will be ready for keypeople to kick up. The Macke Company is donating coffee and donuts for the meeting.

Members of the Planning Committee for the GW 1977 United Way campaign are: Gail S. Hanson, dean of students, 1977 campaign chairwoman; John Hawkins, assistant administrator, the Medical Center; Lois Keith, associate administrator, Medical Faculty Associates; Doris Yuspeh, administrative assistant, Medical Faculty Associates; James Olson, assistant to the Dean for Administrative Affairs; Elizabeth Fisher, director, medical records; Lelia Kent, university cashier; and Jane Lingo, assistant director of public relations.

ANNUAL GIVING-- The Development Office reports that a successful campaign for annual giving has resulted in total contributions of $1,321,176. Annual contributions from 697 members of the University Faculty totaled $120,340. These funds were given by 304 alumni faculty and 393 non-alumni faculty.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

MONROE HURWITZ, manager, GWU Bookstore. "If it's Something Good Let it be Known." College Store Journal, August-September, 1977

NADINE NATOV, associate professor of Russian. "Albert Camus Devant la Critique Sovietique." Albert Camus-8. La Revue des Lettres Modernes, Paris, 1977

IRENE THOMPSON, associate professor of Russian, "Russian Word Order: A Comparative Study." Slavic and East European Journal, Vol. 21, No. 1, Spring, 1977 and "Communicative Competence: Achievements, Attitudes, Techniques for Testing." Strategies for Teaching and Testing Communicative Competence in Russian, Urbana-Champagne publication of the Russian and East European Center, University of Illinois, Fall, 1976

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

CHARLES M. CHAMBERS, associate dean of the College of General Studies, served as a special consultant to the National Commission on Government and Higher Education under the sponsorship of the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation. During the summer Dr. Chambers directed a nationwide project involving 23 colleges and universities designed to study and document the benefits offered schools through government grants and aid, and the burdens associated with excessive paperwork and regulatory intrusion upon academic independence.

PATRICIA LENGERMANN, professor of sociology, RUTH WALLACE, professor of sociology, and Dr. Katherine Marconi of Gettysburg College, presented a paper entitled "Theoretical Perspectives on Sex Roles: Marxism, Functionalism and Phenomenology" at the annual meeting of the American Sociological Association at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago on September 6.

NADINE NATOV,associate professor of Russian, presented a paper on "Anticipation of the Major Action in Dostoevsky's Works as a Problem of Choice" at the Third International Dostoevsky Symposium, held in Rungstedgaard, Denmark, August 14-20. Dr. Natov was chairman of the Organizing Committee of this Symposium, in which Dostoevsky scholars from 20 nations participated, and was re-elected to the position of executive secretary of the International Dostoevsky Society. She was first elected to this position at the First International Dostoevsky Symposium, held in Bad Ems, Germany, September, 1971, when the society was created by Dostoevsky scholars from 16 countries.

STANLEY N. SHERMAN, associate professor of business administration, addressed the opening meeting of the National Contract Management Association, Norfolk Chapter, on September 8, on the topic "Current Initiatives in Procurement/Contract Management Policy." Professor Sherman was a panel moderator at the National Association of Purchasing Management's International Purchasing Conference in Washington on May 24. The panel discussed "Techniques of Cost and Price Analysis." On May 14, the University of Maryland conferred the degree Doctor of Business Administration on Professor Sherman. He defended his dissertation, "Competitive Opportunity Among Motor Common Carriers of Property in Interstate Commerce: Impacts on Entry Control and Irregular Route Carriers" on March 2.

IRENE THOMPSON, associate professor of Russian, was visiting associate professor of Russian in the European Languages Department, University of Hawaii, during the Spring Semester of 1977.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Associate	Biostatistics Center	Joan Young 657-2370

Title	Department	Contact
Research Associate and Research Assistant (in hydraulics, river mechanics, and environmental civil engineering areas)	Civil, Mechanical and Environmental Engineering	Dr. K. Mahmood ext. 3793

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor David Baruch, Assistant Editor

Monday, October 3, 1977 (101)

PEER ADVISING OFFICE -- "For Further Information," an academic resource center for undergraduates, has been opened in the University Library. Situated on the third floor in Rooms 306/307 (by the stacks), "For Further Information" will serve students both as a clearinghouse for academic information and as a center for peer advising.

The center is staffed by undergraduate peer advisers, under the direction of Lois S. Goldberg, special project coordinator for the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs. "For Further Information" hours, during the Fall Semester, will be: 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. and 7 to 10 p.m., Monday through Thursday; and 7 to 10 p.m., Sunday. The telephone number is 676-4966.

UNIVERSITY BOOKSTORE NOTE: All requests for textbooks for the Spring Semester 1978 should be returned to the University Bookstore by Friday, October 14.

PUBLICATIONS

ANTHONY MESCHER, assistant professor of biology, co-authored with C.R. Birdwell and D. Gospodarowicz, a paper entitled "Stimulation of Corneal Endothelial Cell Proliferation in vitro by Fibroblast and Epidermal Growth Factors," Experimental Eye Research, Vol. 25, August 1977.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

CONSTANCE COSTIGAN, assistant professor of design, is showing her recent "Inscape" and "Numina" drawings at the Phillips Collection, 1600 21st Street, N.W., October 1-30.

GUIDO MAZZEO, chairman of the department of romance languages and literatures, spent part of his sabbatical leave in Madrid and Barcelona, Spain, where he conducted research in 18th century Spanish literature. While in Spain, he presented a paper at the University of Tortosa, entitled "Los Jesuitas Espanoles y la Cultura Hispanoitaliana del Siglo XVIII."

JAMES WILLIS ROBB, professor of romance languages, attended the annual meetings of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese held in Madrid, Spain, August 10-17. Professor Robb is on sabbatical leave this semester to continue his literary research on Mexican humanist Alfonso Reyes, in the Reyes Library in Mexico City. He is assisted by grants from the American Philosophical Society and the GW Committee on Research. In late September, Professor Robb will lecture on Reyes at his birthplace, Monterrey, in northern Mexico, where he and Mrs. Robb will be guests of the University of Nuevo Leon.

PHYLLIS L. STEWART, assistant professor of sociology, presented a paper on "The Bureaucratization of Public Representation in the Scottish National Health Service" at Wolfson College, in Oxford, England, on August 11.

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Perinatal Research Assistant (B.S. and lab experience)	Obstetrics and Gynecology	Dr. John Larsen ext. 4357
Research Assistant (half-time) Grant No. 2 RO1 AA 01454-04 (undergraduate degree and some graduate work in social sciences; interviewing experience; background in statistics)	Center for Family Research	Dr. Steven Wolin ext. 4072
Research Associate (cell culture work for Army Grant DAMD-77-C-7045)	Hematology and Oncology	Dr. Kenneth Goldstein ext. 4204
Project Coordinator (experience in faculty recruitment and seminar coordination; must speak German, French, and/or Spanish)	Business Administration	Jack Zwick ext. 6726

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor David Baruch, Assistant Editor

Monday, October 10, 1977 (102)

TDX LONG DISTANCE CALLING INFORMATION -- A survey of the TDX system shows that approximately 300 users are encountering an all-trunks-busy signal on a daily basis when they attempt to make a long distance call. According to the survey, an average of only 39 users are employing the call-back feature.

For a more efficient operation of the system, callers are asked to use the following procedure as outlined by the Telephone Office: 1) when you hear the all-trunks-busy signal (two high-pitched beeps, followed by the TDX dial tone), you may then choose to have an automatic callback; 2) to do this, enter your extension number (by dialing it) as soon as you hear the two beeps, followed by the dial tone; 3) then wait for the system to call you back.

When a callback is requested, the TDX system will continue to search for a free line for the next ten minutes. When a line is found, the system will call you back. When you answer the callback, you will hear the system redialing your original long distance call. If you wish to cancel the call, hang up immediately when you receive the callback. The computer will call your extension for as many as 15 times during the ten-minute interval, if your line is busy.

If your extension is busy and you have extension numbers in rotary, the call-back will come in on the rotary numbers. If there is no answer at your extension when the callback is made, TDX will disconnect after three rings and the original call must be placed again. The system will accept only one callback per extension number at a time.

HOMESTAY/VISIT PROGRAM FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS -- A homestay/visit program for GWU international students has been established this semester by the university's Office of International Student Advising. The purpose of the program is to provide as many opportunities as possible for international students to have contact with host families. The role of the host families is to offer the students whatever opportunities they can,appropriate to the spirit of cross-cultural learning,including such possibilities as a Sunday or holiday dinner, a picnic, theater event or concert, a weekend visit, or a homestay during a holiday break.

Those who wish to be a host family for an international student at George Washington should contact the Office of International Student Advising, Bldg. D, 2129 G Street, N.W., telephone 676-6460.

GWU CLUB SATURDAY DINNER SERVICE -- Saturday dinner service has been instituted at the George Washington University Club between the hours of 5:30 and 10:30 p.m. in the President's Dining Room. Music for dancing will be provided. Light fare will be served in the coctail lounge on Saturday at the same hours. The previously announced policy of complimentary cheese and crackers with special prices of $1.00 each for beverages and 50¢ apiece for draft beer continues Tuesday through Friday from 5 to 6:30 p.m. with Eric Mandez at the piano.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

FREDERICK GUTHEIM, adjunct professor of urban planning and American civilization. Worthy of the Nation, a history of Washington as a planned national capital city, published by the Smithsonian Press. This is the concluding part of a series of historical studies completed by Professor Gutheim for the National Capital Planning Commission.

DAVID RAMAKER, assistant professor of chemistry, co-authored with Dr. James Murday, Dr. Noel Turner, and Mia Burnett, of the Naval Research Laboratory. "An Interpretation of Auger Valence Transitions in Oxides of Third Row Elements." Proceedings of the 7th International Vacuum Congress and 3rd International Conference on Solid Surfaces, Vienna, 1977.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

HERBERT J. DAVIS, associate professor of business administration, presented three papers before the 37th annual meeting of the Academy of Management in August. They were entitled "Personal Value Systems of Trade Union Leaders in Australia," "Gatekeeping and Upward Communication: Another Test of Three Contributing Factors," and "Machiavellianism and the Australian Business Student."

CHARLES O'REAR, chairman of the department of forensic sciences, and Dr. G.C. Llewellyn of Virginia Commonwealth University presented a paper on "An Evaluation of Illicit Marihuana for Mycotoxin" at the annual meeting of the Society for Industrial Microbiology at Michigan State University in East Lansing on August 24.

J. MICHAEL TUBBS, assistant professor of French and director of the language laboratories, addressed the Fourth Biennial Professional Development Workshop for Language Teachers on the topic "The Return of the Language Lab: A Modest Success Story." The workshop was held at Hood College in Frederick, Maryland.

personnel notices

Title	Department	Contact
Research Assistant (M.S. in biochemistry or related field, with specific training in tissue culture techniques)	Biochemistry	George Vahouny ext. 3519

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor David Baruch, Assistant Editor

Monday, October 24, 1977 (103)

UNIVERSITY CHARTER RESTATEMENT ACT SIGNED -- President Carter signed the George Washington University Charter Restatement Act (S. 1060) at the White House on Tuesday, October 18.

The restatement of the charter has been effected so as to provide the university with a more adequate and flexible modern corporate charter. The original charter of February 9, 1821, and all subsequent amendments are consolidated in the bill which is expected to provide sufficient flexibility so that the university's normal processes of change may be accomplished without need for legislative action in the future.

Under the restatement act, university trustees may now be elected without regard to their place of residence. It was a requirement of the former charter that a majority of the members of the Board of Trustees be residents of the District of Columbia.

The restatement establishes the university as a corporate entity with perpetual succession, as did the original 1821 act. It sets forth the purposes of the university, which were generally provided for in the earlier charter: (1) to educate in liberal arts, languages, sciences, etc.; (2) to conduct scholarly research and publish the findings thereof; (3) to operate hospital and medical facilities; and to engage in any activity incidental to the above purposes. The restatement introduces new language into the charter by providing that the purposes of the university shall be accomplished without regard to race, color, creed, sex, or national origin.

The bill lists the powers of the university with regard to the conferring of academic and honorary degrees, establishing schools and divisions, receiving, investing and administering gifts, borrowing money, entering into agreements with other educational institutions, and exercising powers delegated to non-profit corporations in the District of Columbia.

Management of the institution is vested in the Board of Trustees. The law provides that the bylaws of the university shall specify the number, term of office, qualifications and so forth of the trustees and provide for their election. There is provision for the appointment of the executive committee of the board and prohibition of employees of the university from serving on the board. The board is granted full authority over all the personnel and activities of the university. A two-thirds vote of the board is required to amend or repeal by-laws. The power to merge with any other non-profit organization is given the board, provided this action is taken by a two-thirds vote.

RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE -- There will be a university-sponsored Red Cross Blood Drive on Thursday, November 3, in the Marvin Center ballroom (third floor) between the hours of 10 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. To expedite processing time, donations will be by appointment only. Those who wish to give should call 676-6555 to schedule a time, and those who have questions about donor eligibility should call the Red Cross at 857-3767. Others who find it impossible to make an appointment may go to the Red Cross at 2025 E Street, N.W. (a five-minute walk from campus) where the center is well equipped to take walk-in donors. Hours there are: 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Tuesday through Friday, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday. The Student Activities Office is coordinating the drive and urges all members of the university community to participate.

-more-

PRECAUTIONS AGAINST THEFT -- The Office of Safety and Security wishes to remind the members of the university community of the precautions which must be continually taken to prevent thefts from offices and university buildings. The following procedures are strongly recommended:

-- Offices should be locked even if they are to be unoccupied for a few minutes.
-- Valuables should not be left in sight even in locked offices. Lock them in desks or cabinets.
-- Door keys should be safeguarded.
-- Purses or other valuables should not be left unattended for a moment in such places as libraries, lounges or classrooms.
-- Reports should be made immediately to the Security Office of any suspicious incident or person, such as a stranger who is obviously out of place or who professes a mistake in finding his way. Security Office telephone is 6111.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

R. VICTORIA ARANA, lecturer in English. "Sir Edmund Gosse's Father and Son: Autobiography as Comedy." Genre, Vol. X, No. 1, Spring, 1977.

KATHLEEN C. CHRISTENSEN, psychologist with the University Counseling Center, and W.E. Sedlacek. "A follow-up of Clients Placed on a Counseling Center Waiting List: Where Have They Gone?" Journal of College Student Personnel, July, 1977.

ABRAHAM M. HALPERN, adjunct professor of international affairs, and YOUNG C. KIM professor of political science and international affairs, and members of the Institute for Sino-Soviet Studies. The Future of the Korean Peninsula, published by Praeger Publishers.

PETER F. KLAREN, associate professor of history. "The Social & Economic Consequences of Modernization in the Peruvian Sugar Industry, 1860-1940" Land & Labour in Latin America: Essays on the Development of Agrarian Capitalism in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries, Kenneth Duncan and Ian Rutlidge, editors. New York & London: Cambridge University Press, 1977.

NORMAN L. McELROY, instructor for allied health in radiology, JOSEPH J. CARR, hospital bioelectronics laboratory, and BONITA L. CARR, R.N., coronary care unit staff nurse. Simplified Mathematics for Nurses, ARCO Publishers, New York.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

JOHN G. BOSWELL, professor of education, represented GWU at the inauguration of Morris Norfleet as seventh president of Morehead State University in Morehead, Kentucky on September 30.

-more-

PETER P. HILL, professor of history, participated in Duquesne University's 11th annual History Forum on October 20-22 in Pittsburgh. Dr. Hill presented a paper on "Prologue to the Quasi-War: Stresses in Franco-American Commercial Relations, 1793-1796" before the session on "Franco-American Relations in the Early Years of the Republic."

RAOUL KULBERG, library staff, attended the 50th anniversary session of the International Federation of Library Associations in Brussels, September 4-10. The program was under the patronage of His Majesty King Baudoin. Prior to the conference, Mr. Kulberg visited maritime museums in New England, Canada, and northern Europe as part of his study of trade with Asia.

KLAUS THOENELT, professor of German, presented a paper at the 1977 convention on German Exile Literature-National Socialist Literature at the University of South Carolina. Professor Thoenelt's paper was entitled "Selbstentfremdung als deutsches Phanomen in Thomas Manns 'Dr. Faustus' und Alfred Rosenbergs 'Mythos des 20. Jahrhunderts.' "

ROBERT H. WALKER, professor of American civilization, has been appointed to serve on the American Panel of the United States-Japan Joint Committee on Cultural and Educational Cooperation. The term of the appointment is three years, effective October 1, 1977.

personnel notices

Title	Department	Contact
Research Assistant (experience in energy engineering & research, ability to write)	Office of Energy Programs/SEAS	Dr. Ali B. Cambel ext. 7135
Research Engineer (2) (background in management of R&D planning)	Engineering Administration Department Research Group	John Pressley ext. 4987

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex or national origin.

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor David Baruch, Assistant Editor

Monday, October 31, 1977 (104)

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION NAME CHANGE -- The Board of Trustees, at its stated meeting on October 20, voted to change the name of the School of Education to the School of Education and Human Development.

RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE DATE CHANGE -- The university-sponsored Red Cross Blood Drive, announced for November 3, will now be held on Wednesday, November 2. This change in date is the only change. The drive will be held in the Marvin Center third-floor ballroom between the hours of 10 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. by appointment. Those who wish to donate should call the Student Activities Office, 676-6555.

BLUE CROSS/BLUE SHIELD AND HMO OPEN ENROLLMENT ANNOUNCEMENT -- Enrollment is now open for Blue Cross/Blue Shield and HMO. This open enrollment period will continue through Thursday, November 17. During this period, all full-time employees are given the opportunity to enroll in one of the health plans, to add or change coverage or to transfer coverage between Blue Cross/Blue Shield and one of the HMO plans.

There is an increase in the individual employee's premium. For employees who are paid monthly, the increase will be reflected in the checks received at the end of November. For those paid bi-weekly and weekly, the increase will appear in December checks. All these increases will apply to coverage as of January 1, 1978.

A memorandum containing details relating to rate changes and coverage has previously been forwarded to each full-time staff member. Those who have not received this memorandum or who wish further information, may call the Records and Benefits Division of the Office of Personnel Services at 676-4480.

UNITED WAY DATES - The George Washington University United Way campaign is entering its second report period. Those who plan to contribute, but have not yet given, are encouraged to do so in the next two weeks before the second reporting date.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

LOIS G. SCHWOERER, professor of history. "Press and Parliament in the Revolution of 1689." Historical Journal, Cambridge University, September, 1977.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

MARGARET BOECKMANN, assistant professor of sociology, presented a paper entitled "The Problem of Attrition in Randomized Field Experiments" at the first annual meeting of the Evaluation Research Society in Washington on October 13.

ANTHONY FIACCO, professor of operations research, served as program chairman of the International Symposium on Extremal Methods and Systems Analysis held in Austin, Texas September 13-15. The program included 45 sessions on 25 topics, covered in 120 scientific papers.

GUIDO E. MAZZEO, professor of romance languages, was invited to read a paper concerning "The Spanish Jesuits in Exile and Hispano-Italian Cultural Relations during the XVIII Century" at a symposium presented by the Division of Languages and Literatures of Ferrum College, Ferrum, Virginia, on the occasion of its commemoration of Hispanic Week, on October 5. Professor Mazzeo also participated as a discussant at the Georgetown-MLA Conference on Language in American Life, which was part of the workshop on "Careers and the Foreign Language Curriculum" on October 7 at Georgetown University.

JOAN REGNELL, assistant professor of speech, addressed the D.C. Speech and Hearing Association on "New Friends in Voice" at Sibley Hospital on October 7.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Associate (M.S. or equivalent experience in communications or population studies)	Science Communication Division	Irvin Mohler ext. 4807
Research Associate (M.S. or equivalent experience in a population specialty abstracting or indexing technical literature)	Science Communication Division	Irvin Mohler ext. 4807

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex or national origin.

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor David Baruch, Assistant Editor

Monday, November 7, 1977 (105)

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

ANNE FRANKLIN, coordinator of continuing education for women's landscape architect assistant program, participated in the National Conference of the Council of Educators in Landscape Architecture held in Minneapolis.

STEACY D. HICKS, associate professorial lecturer in oceanography, received the Department of Commerce's Silver Medal for his "significant accomplishments in the field of oceanography." He was specifically recognized for his "unique contributions that were essential in defining and solving the complex and technically difficult tidal datum problems in the Gulf of Mexico."

JAMES O. HORTON, associate professor of American history and civilization, presented a paper entitled "Black Workers: Occupational Structure in Antebellum Boston" before the annual conference of the Social Science History Association on October 20-23, in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

PETER F. KLAREN, associate professor of history, addressed Temple University's Latin American Seminar on "A Latin Americanist's Perspective on Washington," on October 29, in Washington.

JOHN C. LAROSA, director of the Lipid Research Clinic, represented GW's Medical Center at a recent seminar on "Health Care Costs in Metropolitan Washington," sponsored by the Metropolitan Washington Board of Trade. Dr. LaRosa spoke to local employers on "Business and Preventive Health Care Services."

JILL MCLEAN, coordinator of the legal assistant program of continuing education for women, participated in the American Bar Association's National Conference for Legal Assistant Program Directors and Educators held in Chicago.

THELMA Z. LAVINE, Elton professor of philosophy, conducted a seminar on "Man, Society, and Social Change" at the Inter-American Defense College, Fort McNair, on September 16. She also served as a consultant to the Embassy of Nigeria on faculty recruitment for the University of Joss this summer. On October 10, Dr. Lavine presented a paper on Sartre to the Washington School of Psychiatry, Seminar on the Irrational.

VLADIMIR PETROV, professor of international affairs and a member of the Institute for Sino-Soviet Studies, served as a discussant on a panel, "Perceptions of Soviet Foreign Policy Analysis," at the meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies on October 15 in Washington.

GASTON J. SIGUR, professor of international affairs and director of the Institute for Sino-Soviet Studies, addressed a gathering of scholars at the Institute of the Far East of the U.S.S.R. Academy of Sciences in Moscow on October 19. The subject of his address was "American Relations with China and Japan: An Historical Perspective."

FRANK G. STERRETT, JR., training manager for personnel services, has been elected Treasurer of the Washington Chapter of the American Society for Training and Development for 1978.

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Assistant	Biostatistics Center	Joan Young 657-2370
Research Assistant (college graduate, preferably with background in educational design and evaluation)	Health Care Sciences	Jane Jason ext. 4113

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex or national origin.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor David Baruch, Assistant Editor

Monday, November 14, 1977 (106)

UNITED WAY REQUEST -- Any members of the university community who have not yet been contacted by a United Way keyperson, are requested to call the Office of the Dean of Students so that all contributions in the 1977 GWU United Way campaign can be processed. The telephone is 676-6710.

LIBRARIES HOURS FOR THANKSGIVING RECESS -- For the convenience of the university community, the schedule of hours of the university libraries appears on pages 3 and 4.

PUBLICATIONS

AHMED K. NOOR, professor of engineering and applied science, with Stephen J. Hartley. "Nonlinear Shell Analysis Via Mixed Isoparametric Elements." International Journal of Computers and Structures, October, 1977, and, with Carl M. Andersen, "Mixed Isoparametric Finite Element Models of Laminated Composite Shells." International Journal of Computer Methods in Applied Mechanics and Engineering, Vol. 11, 1977.

JEANNE SNODGRASS, associate professor of human kinetics and leisure studies. "Self-Concept." Journal of Physical Education and Recreation, November-December, 1977.

IRENE THOMPSON, associate professor of Russian. "Student Attitude and Achievement in Russian." Russian Language Journal, Vol. XXXI, 109, 1977.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

HERBERT J. DAVIS, associate professor of business administration, presented three papers before the Southern Risk and Insurance Association in Atlanta, October 26-29. They were entitled: "Ethical Beliefs and Behavior in the Life Insurance Industry: Individual versus Peer Beliefs," "Role Clarity and the CLU: A Factor in Improved Job Performance?" and "Need Satisfaction and the FLMI: An Analysis of Demographic Differences."

LYNN GEORGE, associate professor of human kinetics and leisure studies, spoke to representatives from 14 European nations on GW's implementation of Title IX in women's athletics at the UNESCO meeting on Physical Education and Sport held at the State Department on October 28.

MARGARET GUENTHER, associate professorial lecturer in German, presented a paper entitled "Faust: The Tragedy Re-examined" before the South Atlantic Modern Language Association in Washington on November 5.

JANE LINGO, assistant director of public relations, was a panelist at a Public Relations Society of America conference on November 1 at American University, sponsored by the Washington chapter of the organization.

DORN C. MCGRATH, JR., professor of urban planning, addressed the FBI's National Executive Institute in the area of urban planning and population growth. The institute is a training program specifically designed for the chief law enforcement executive of a metropolitan region. Its main objective is to seek solutions to contemporary police problems. FBI Director Clarence M. Kelley requested that Professor McGrath attend the institute which was held at the FBI Academy in Quantico, Virginia, on October 27.

-more-

ROBERT E. PARK, professor of law, was the keynote speaker at the General Services Administration's Annual Regulated Utilities Seminar for federal attorneys and regulatory analysts, on November 1. He spoke on "Current Trends in the Law of Regulated Industries."

E. LAKIN PHILLIPS, professor of psychology, spoke before the Psychiatric Institute on October 19 concerning "Behavioral Methods in the Classroom." Professor Phillips was also interviewed by the Associated Press Radio network pertaining to his book Day to Day Anxiety Management.

CHUNG-WEN SHIH, professor of Chinese and chairman, department of East Asian languages and literatures, visited the People's Republic of China, Hong Kong, and Japan in June and July. During this period, she conducted research on 20th century Chinese drama, visited drama centers, and interviewed a number of leading figures in the field. In October, she was awarded a grant by the National Endowment for the Humanities to translate a number of classical Chinese plays. Professor Shih also has been re-elected chairman of the executive board of the national Chinese Language Teachers Association.

JEANNE SNODGRASS, associate professor of human kinetics and leisure studies, presented a report sponsored by the American Council for International Sport on the Iranian Model Project before the October 27th meeting of the UNESCO European Nations at the State Department.

RICHARD C. THORNTON, professor of history and international affairs, and a member of the Institute for Sino-Soviet Studies, spoke to the Inter-University Research Colloquium on East Asia on October 10 regarding his recent trip to Peking. Professor Thornton also lectured before Dade County High School teachers in Miami on "New Faces and Forces in the Pacific" and spoke at the Defense Intelligence School on "Current Developments in Chinese Politics." On October 26 he addressed the Washington Church of God on "Soviet Foreign Policy Since World War II."

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Director, Rehabilitation Research Institute on overcoming attitudinal barriers to the disabled. (Direct experience with disability and demonstrated research and management skills required.)	Education	Donald Linkowski ext. 7204

-more-

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS (CONT'D)

Title	Department	Contact
Research Assistant for Biochemical Investigation (basic understanding of general chemistry, biochemistry, and genetics)	Pathology	Dr. Carleton Garrett ext. 3825
Program Associate-Editor/Writer	Institute for Educational Leadership	Dr. Elizabeth Johns or Dr. Samuel Halperin 833-1737

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex or national origin.

LIBRARIES HOURS

The University Library

Wednesday, November 23	8:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. (public services until 6 p.m.)
Thursday, November 24 (Thanksgiving Day)	Closed
Friday, November 25	12 noon to 8 p.m.
Saturday, November 26	10 a.m. to 8 p.m. (public services until 6 p.m.)
Sunday, November 27	12 noon to 12 midnight

The Jacob Burns Law Library

Wednesday, November 23	8 a.m. to 8 p.m.
Thursday, November 24 (Thanksgiving Day)	Closed
Friday, November 25	9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Saturday, November 26	9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Sunday, November 27	9 a.m. to 12 midnight

-more-

LIBRARIES HOURS (continued)

The Paul Himmelfarb Health Sciences Library

Wednesday, November 23	7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Thursday, November 24 (Thanksgiving Day)	Closed
Friday, November 25	10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Saturday, November 26	10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Sunday, November 27	10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor David Baruch, Assistant Editor

November 21, 1977 (107)

SMITH CENTER THANKSGIVING HOURS -- Hours at the Smith Center during the Thanksgiving recess will be as follows:

Thursday, November 24 (Thanksgiving Day)	Closed
Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, November 25, 26, 27	1 to 6 pm

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

DAVID S. BROWN, professor of management, "Rethinking the Supervisory Role." Supervisory Management, November 1977.

ANTHONY L. MESCHER, assistant professor of biology, "A Comparison of the Responses of Cultured Myoblasts and Chondrocytes to Fibroblast and Epidermal Growth Factors" with Dennis Gospodarowicz. Journal of Cellular Physiology, October 1977.

RALPH K. WHITE, professor emeritus of social psychology, "Misperception in the Arab-Israeli Conflict." Journal of Social Issues, Vol. 33, No. 1, 1977.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

DAVID S. BROWN, professor of management, was a guest columnist for The Washington Star for the October 7 issue. His column was titled "TV Keeps Vulgarizing America."

ANTHONY V. FIACCO, professor of operations research, chaired a session on "Nonlinear Programming: Sensitivity Analysis" at the Joint National ORSA/TIMS Meeting in Atlanta, Georgia, November 7-9.

DONALD GROSS, professor of operations research, presented a paper, "Designing a Support System for Repairable Items," at the Joint National ORSA/TIMS Meeting in Atlanta.

FREDERICK GUTHEIM, adjunct professor of urban planning and American civilization, attended a meeting of the Frank Lloyd Wright Home and Studio Foundation in Oak Park, Illinois, to advise on the restoration of this historic site. He has edited two volumes of architect Frank Lloyd Wright's writings.

DAVID C. PARK, research instructor in human kinetics and leisure studies, gave a presentation to the North Carolina Recreation and Park Society in Wilmington, N.C. on November 8. His topic was "The Role of Recreation in Public Law 94-142 (Education of All Handicapped Children Act)."

VLADIMIR PETROV, professor of international affairs, lectured at the National War College on November 3 on the topic of Soviet foreign policy and strategy. Also on November 3, The Los Angeles Times carried an article by Professor Petrov on the current state of Soviet-American relations.

NOZER D. SINGPURWALLA, professor of operations research and research professor of statistics, presented a paper, "Transfer Function Models for Analyzing Maintenance and Availability: A Case Study," at the Joint National ORSA/TIMS Meeting in Atlanta November 7-9.

ABBIE O. SMITH, director of program development, Continuing Education for Women, chaired the Continuing Education for Women Section program at the national conference of the Adult Education Association of the U.S.A., October 30-November 2, in Detroit, Michigan. She also gave a presentation on "Successful Programs for Women" for the AEA Commission on the Status of Women. She was named a co-editor of the forthcoming revision of the Adult Education Association's Adult Leadership series.

RICHARD C. THORNTON, professor of history and international affairs, lectured on "The Evolution of U.S. and Soviet Strategy Since World War II" at the U.S. Marine Corps Command Staff College at Quantico, Va., on November 10.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Associate for clinical research studies examining neuroendocrine regulation in affective disorders, pharmacologic treatment of affective disorders, and alcohol and drug abuse effects on psychiatric treatment. Duties include collection, reduction and analysis of data. Master's in psychology or social sciences, or bachelor's with 4-6 years research experience.	Psychiatry and Behaviorial Sciences	Dr. Stuart Sotsky, Ambulatory Care Division 2150 Penna. Ave, NW Wash., D.C. 20037 (Send resume)
Administrator for research and training program. Should be knowledgeable in grant administration, identifying fund sources, and organizing and coordinating budgets. Master's level or bachelor's with 3-5 years experience in management.	Center for Family Research	Leslie M. Kaplan Room 613 Walter G. Ross Hall 2300 Eye Street, NW Wash., D.C. 20037 (send resume).

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, national origin, or handicap.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor David Baruch, Assistant Editor

December 5, 1977 (108)

REPORTING ACCIDENTS -- The insurance carrier for the university has given a reminder to the Office of Safety and Security that both the university and the carrier are subject to federal penalty fines for failure to report all employee accidents promptly. Completed accident report forms should be submitted within 48 hours, providing as much information as possible. A report should not be delayed because it is not complete. Copies of the accident report forms may be obtained by calling the Office of Safety and Security, 676-6947.

STILL TIME FOR UNITED WAY -- There is still time to make contributions to the university's 1977 United Way Campaign. Contributions can be sent to Mrs. Lelia O. Kent, Office of the Cashier, 3rd Floor, Rice Hall, 2121 Eye Street, N.W. (telephone 676-6200) or turned in to any member of the staff of the Office of the Cashier.

BOOKSTORE NOTES -- The University Bookstore is disassembling the Textbook Department this week, beginning today, Monday, December 5, to prepare the department for the spring 1978 books. Any books needed to complete courses should be picked up without delay.

The University Bookstore will have "Used Book Buy-Back" days on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, December 19, 20, and 21 at the Marvin Center Ground Floor Information Desk between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

The bookstore will close Thursday, December 22, at 3 p.m. and will reopen Tuesday, January 3, at 8:45 a.m.

LIBRARIES' SCHEDULES THROUGH JANUARY 2, 1978 -- For the convenience of the university community, the schedules of the university libraries through the New Year's Day holiday, Monday, January 2, are given on pages 4 and 5.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

ROBERT K. FARIS. director of men's athletics, "Planning Helps George Washington University Solve Space Problems." Athletic Administration, October 1977.

LOIS G. SCHWOERER, professor of history, "Propaganda in the Revolution of 1688/89." American Historical Review, Vol. 82. No. 4, October 1977.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

RAYMOND R. FOX, professor of engineering and applied science, has been appointed to the Subcommittee on Live Loads of the American National Standards Institute Committee A 58 on Building Code Requirements for Minimum Design Loads in Buildings and other Structures.

ANDREW GYORGY, professor of international affairs and political science and member of the Institute for Sino-Soviet Studies, chaired a panel entitled "New Problems and Old Issues in Eastern Europe" at the recent national convention of the American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies on October 15. In addition, he served as the representative of the George Washington University at the meeting of Institutional members, was elected to the national Education Committee of AAASS for a one-year term, and also was a member of the local arrangements committee.

WILLIAM W. HARDGRAVE, associate professor of management science, presented a paper, "The 'Modeling Studio' in a Large, Urban Business School," at the Joint National Meeting of the Operations Research Society of America and the Institute of Management Sciences, on November 8 in Atlanta. The paper described his experiences in teaching Mgt. 229, "Management Sciences and Operations Research," as a "mathematical modeling studio" during the last four years.

ARIEL HOLLINSHEAD, professor of medicine, addressed the 22nd annual Clinical Conference on Immunotherapy of Human Cancer concerning "Active-Specific Immunotherapy," on November 10 in Houston, Texas.

JAMES O. HORTON, associate professor of American civilization and history, participated in the National Urban League Conference on Black Families November 3-6 in Chicago. Dr. Horton presented a paper entitled "The Historian and Social Policy: Moynihan and Black Families of Pre-Civil War Boston."

SIDNEY JOHNSON, director, Family Impact Seminar, Institute for Educational Leadership, addressed the National Council on Family Relations on the subject of family impact analysis.

SAMUEL KAVRUCK, visiting professor of education, spoke to members of Washington EdPress at the Faculty Club on November 18. His topic was "Some Bones of Contention in the Measurement of Human Behavior." Washington EdPress is an organization of local editors of educational publications. Dr. Kavruck also edits the Washington Counseletter, a national newsletter primarily for counselors and educators in the behavioral sciences.

CARL LINDEN, associate professor of international affairs and political science and member of the Institute for Sino-Soviet Studies, chaired a panel at the national convention of the American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies on October 13. The panel, "Dissent and its Ramifications," included amoung its participants Andrei Amalrik and Mikhail Agurskiy. On October 17 Dr. Linden headed a State Department seminar on "Nationalities and Nationalism in the U.S.S.R."

JILL MCLEAN, coordinator of the Continuing Education for Women Center's Legal Assistant Program, was the featured speaker at the November 17 meeting of the Alexandria Bar Association. Ms. McLean spoke on "The Use of Legal Assistants."

BARBARA MEREDITH, coordinator of the Continuing Education for Women Center's Publication Specialist Program, was a panelist at the Ferguson Seminar on Publishing held November 18-19 at the College of William and Mary. This biennial event features major publishers and educators and is designed to introduce upper-level college students in Virginia to the nature of book publishing as a career. It was endowed by the late William Cross Ferguson, who was editor-in-chief and later president of The World Book Company.

JOHN MERROW, of the Institute for Educational Leadership, producer of "Options in Education" over National Public Radio, addressed the National Academy of Education on the topic of "Promoting Understanding Between Researchers and Reporters."

GLENN E. MORRIS, associate professorial lecturer in the department of health care administration, was named by the Association of Mental Health Administrators to receive its 1977 Harold C. Piepenbrink Award to that individual making the most significant contribution to the profession of mental health administrators. In announcing the selection, AMHA president John R. Collier cited Mr. Morris' long and successful career as an administrator, his distinguished contribution to graduate evaluation of mental health administrators, and his service to the Association.

LEONARD NADLER, professor of education, addressed the 6th Conference of the International Federation of Training and Development Organizations on "Characteristics of Adult Learners-Cross Cultural Implications," in Mexico City in October.

AHMED K. NOOR, professor of engineering and applied science, was recently elected Associate Fellow in the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics.

GEORGE OLKHOVSKY, associate professor of Russian, served as a discussant on the panel, "Dissent and its Ramifications in the U.S.S.R." at the Ninth National Convention of the American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies held in Washington in October. In November, Professor Olkhovsky served as a discussant at the international conference "Dissent and Literature" held in West Berlin.

ROBERT E. PARK, professor of law, spoke on "The Basics of Informal Rulemaking Under the Administrative Procedure Act" to the Federal Bar Association's 1977 Administrative Law Workshop on November 15.

ORMOND SEAVEY, assistant professor of English, gave a paper on "Metaphor and Identity in Franklin's Autobiography" at a session on "Rhetoric, History, and Identity in Colonial America" at the American Studies Association Convention in Boston on October 29.

LORETTA STALLINGS, professor of human kinetics and leisure studies, presented two papers for the Puerto Rican Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation on October 21-24. They were entitled: "Information-Processing Concepts Applied to Motor Learning," and "Perceptual-Motor Therapy: The State of the Art."

ALAN WADE, assistant professor of speech and drama, appeared as an Equity Guest Artist at the Spotlighter's Theatre in Baltimore in November. Professor Wade presented his one-man show based on the prose works of Samuel Beckett, which premiered last spring at Chicago's Victory Gardens Theatre.

LIBRARIES' SCHEDULES

The University Library

Monday, December 5, through Friday December 9	8:30 am to 2 am
Saturday and Sunday, December 10 and 11	10 am to 2 am
Monday, December 12, through Friday, December 16	8:30 am to 2 am
Saturday and Sunday, December 17 and 18	10 am to 2 am
Monday and Tuesday, December 19 and 20	8:30 am to 12 midnight
Wednesday and Thursday, December 21 and 22	8:30 am to 8 pm
Friday through Monday, December 23 through 26	Closed
Tuesday through Thursday, December 27 through 29	8:30 am to 5 pm
Friday through Monday, December 30 through January 2, 1978	Closed

The Jacob Burns Law Library

Monday, December 5	8 am to 12 midnight
Tuesday, December 6, through Friday, December 9	8 am to 12 midnight (2nd Floor open to 2 am)
Saturday, December 10	9 am to 12 midnight
Sunday, December 11	9 am to 12 midnight (2nd Floor open to 2 am)
Monday, December 12, through Friday, December 16	8 am to 12 midnight (2nd Floor open to 2 am)
Saturday, December 17, through Monday, December 26	Closed
Tuesday, December 27, through Thursday, December 29	9 am to 5 pm
Friday, December 30, through Monday, January 2	Closed

The Paul Himmelfarb Health Sciences Library

Monday, December 5, through Thursday, December 8	7:30 am to 12 midnight
Friday, December 9	7:30 am to 10 pm
Saturday, December 10	10 am to 10 pm
Sunday, December 11	10 am to 12 midnight

The Paul Himmelfarb Health Sciences Library (contd.)

Monday, December 12, through Thursday, December 15	7:30 am to 12 midnight
Friday, December 16	7:30 am to 6 pm
Saturday and Sunday, December 17 and 18	10 am to 6 pm
Monday, December 19, through Thursday, December 22	7:30 am to 9 pm
Friday, December 23 through Monday, December 26	Closed
Tuesday, through Thursday, December 27 through 29	7:30 am to 9 pm
Friday, December 30, through Monday, January 2	Closed

Himmelfarb Audiovisual Study Center

Friday, December 16	7:30 am to 5 pm
Saturday and Sunday, December 17 and 18	Closed
Monday through Thursday, December 19 through 22	8:30 am to 5 pm
Friday through Monday, December 23 through 26	Closed
Tuesday through Thursday, December 27 through 29	8:30 am to 5 pm
Friday through Monday, December 30 through January 2	Closed

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

TITLE	DEPARTMENT	CONTACT
Research Assistant	Biostatistic Center	Joan Young 657-2370

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color. religion, sex, national origin, or handicap.

-The Monday Report-

the monday report

the george washington university

general notices
faculty newsnotes
personnel notices

Published by the Office of Public Relations
Jane Lingo, Editor David Baruch, Assistant Editor

December 12, 1977 (109)

GENERAL BUILDING CLOSINGS OVER THE HOLIDAYS -- During the two four-day holidays, December 23 through December 26 and December 30 through January 2, 1978, most university buildings will be closed and will be heated only to the level required to prevent freezing of pipes. Stuart Hall will be open because of the Computer Center and Woodhull House because of the Office of Safety and Security. The ground floor of the Marvin Center will be open from 8 a.m. to 12 midnight during both of the four-day periods. Lisner Auditorium will be open according to its schedule.

Those whose offices are located in the small townhouses are requested to lower the thermostats to the lowest point prior to leaving for the holidays.

INTERNATIONAL HOLIDAY SPIRIT -- The Office of International Student Advising is seeking volunteer host families from the George Washington University community who would like to receive international students during the coming holidays. Any family that would be interested in opening its home to an international student or students for Christmas dinner and/or other holiday activities should contact Robert Locke at 676-6860 (between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.) by Monday, December 19.

faculty newsnotes

PUBLICATIONS

YOUNG C. KIM, professor of political science and international affairs and member of the Institute for Sino-Soviet Studies, "Korea's Future: Pyongyang's Perspective." Asian Survey, November 1977.

E. LAKIN PHILLIPS, professor of psychology, with Judith Gershenson and Geraldine Lyons, "On Time-Limited Writing Therapy." Psychological Reports, Vol. 41, 1977.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

CHARLES M. CHAMBERS, associate dean of the College of General Studies, has been appointed legal consultant to the Council on Post-secondary Accreditation, in Washington. His assignment involves the analysis of proposed legislation and federal rules to determine their possible effect on the accreditation of colleges and universities.

-more-

RODERICK FRENCH, director of the Division of Experimental Programs, was a member of a panel on "The Role of Humanists in Municipal Government" which was videotaped by the National League of Cities for distribution to public television stations throughout the country. The taping was part of a larger project on Conserving Human Values in the Nation's Cities undertaken by the NLC with support from the National Endowment for the Humanities. Professor French also has contributed to the project a paper entitled "The Return of the Humanists," to be published by the League this month.

PHILLIP D. GRUB, Aryamehr professor of multinational management, addressed the Central Washington State Scottish Rite Organization concerning "The Need for Leadership in a Contemporary World" on November 11. Professor Grub was also a panelist and speaker at the Sixth International Symposium on Planning, sponsored by the National Association for Planners in Honolulu on November 14. Following the conference, Professor Grub visited Korea, where he is doing research in the area of industrial growth and economic development. He also went to Japan for discussions with executives of Japanese multinational corporations on Japan's current economic situation and export surplus.

A. M. HALPERN, adjunct professor of international affairs and member of the Institute for Sino-Soviet Studies, has been awarded a Fellowship for Independent Study and Research by the National Endowment for the Humanities, effective July 1, 1978, for research on the oral literature of the Yuma (Quechan) Indians.

JOHN HELMER, associate professor of sociology, has been appointed Coordinator of the Special Working Group of Vietnam-Era Veterans of the President's Commission on Mental Health. Author of several books and studies of Vietnam veterans and the effects of the war at home, Professor Helmer will be examining the particular mental health problems and needs of the war's veterans and their families. He has also recently served as a special advisor to the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Labor for Veterans Employment, a newly created post for dealing with the special labor market problems of Vietnam veterans.

ELIZABETH JOHNS, associate director for management, Institute for Educational Leadership, was named a Fellow by the Honors Committee of the American Speech and Hearing Association, at its annual meeting in Chicago on November 3. Dr. Johns was also appointed to a three-year term on the Education and Training Board of the Association.

PETER F. KLAREN, associate professor of history, gave a lecture on the subject "A Latin Americanist's Perspective on Washington" during Temple University's Latin American Seminar in Washington on October 29.

JOSEPH B. MARGOLIN, director, behavioral studies group, program of policy studies in science and technology, attended a meeting in New York in November on "Terrorism and the Media" which was preparatory to research he is conducting in that field. He also authored a chapter in the book TERRORISM: Interdisciplinary Perspectives, entitled "Psychological Perspectives in Terrorism."

DORN C. MCGRATH, JR., professor of urban planning, was a panel member on "Colloquium on Grants in the Energy Field" sponsored by the Federal Grants Committee, the Capitol Hill Chapter, and the Council on Science, Technology, and the Law (Federal Bar Association). The discussion topic was "Should energy facility siting decisions continue to be made in private with lengthy, expensive adversary review, or should the process be performed by the public sector in cooperation with industry?" The colloquium was held on December 1 at the National Lawyers Club.

E. LAKIN PHILLIPS, professor of psychology, with Arthur Cowden, graduate student in the Art Therapy Program, presented an address on "The Psychology of Illusions" at Northern Virginia Community College on November 18.

LOIS G. SCHWOERER, professor of history, was awarded a Senior Fellowship by the Folger Shakespeare Library for study at the Library during the academic year 1978 - 79. Professor Schwoerer expects to complete her book on the English Declaration of Rights and the Bill of Rights of 1689.

personnel notices

NON-CLASSIFIED JOB OPENINGS

Title	Department	Contact
Research Assistant-Programmer (3 years' experience in Fortran and Assembly language and statistical or mathematical applications)	Veteran's Administration Hospital	Mrs. A. Sowa VA Hospital 50 Irving St,NW Washington, DC 20422
Research Assistant (B.S. in chemical or biological sciences)	Pharmacology	Dr. Harold Harder ext. 2917
Research Assistant (degree in science-related field, with several years' experience in laboratory work)	Microbiology	Dr. Lewis Affronti ext. 3531
Research Engineer (experience in R&D planning)	Engineering Administration	Dr. Sam Rothman ext. 7409

The George Washington University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, national origin, or handicap.